BRIEF DESCRIPTION: Addressing mental health sentencing alternatives.

1 AN ACT Relating to mental health sentencing alternatives;
2 amending RCW 9.94A.501; adding a new section to chapter 9.94A RCW;
3 creating a new section; providing an effective date; and declaring an 4 emergency.

5 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

6 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 9.94A
7 RCW to read as follows:

8 (1) A convicted defendant is eligible for the mental disability
9 mandated observation and treatment alternative to incarceration if:

10 (a) The defendant is convicted of a felony that is not a serious
11 violent offense;

12 (b) The defendant is diagnosed with a severe and persistent
13 mental health issue recognized by the diagnostic manual in use by 14 mental health professionals at the time of sentencing;

15 (c) The defendant would benefit from supervision and treatment;

16 (d) The defendant's sentence could include incarceration; and

17 (e) The defendant is willing to participate in the sentencing
18 alternative.

19 (2) A motion for a sentence under this section may be made by the 20 court, the defendant, or the state, but is contingent upon the 21 defendant's agreement to participate in the sentencing alternative.

1 If the sentencing court determines that the defendant is eligible for 2 this alternative, the court may order an examination of the 3 defendant. The court can waive the examination if sufficient
4 information is available regarding the defendant's mental health
5 issue: That information may include previous written reports
6 including reports completed pursuant to chapters 71.05 and 10.77 RCW
7 and written reports from a discharge planner, social worker, or 8 similar professional with mental health expertise.

9 (3) A written report shall be completed to assist the court in 10 its determination. The written report shall be in the form of a
11 presentence investigation. A report may be ordered on the motion of a 12 party or the court prior to conviction if such a report will 13 facilitate negotiations. The report must contain:

14 (a) Either a proposed treatment or supervision plan to address
15 the underlying mental health issue, or both;

16 (b) The recommended frequency and length of treatment;

17 (c) The name and address of any treatment providers including any 18 person providing medication relating to the mental health diagnosis;

19 (d) A proposed monitoring plan, including any requirements
20 regarding living conditions, lifestyle requirements, and monitoring
21 by family members and others;

22 (e) Recommended crime-related prohibitions and affirmative
23 conditions; and

24 (f) A release of information, signed by the defendant, so that
25 the parties can confirm components of the treatment and monitoring
26 plan.

27 (4) If the court determines that a sentence under this section is 28 appropriate, the court shall waive imposition of the sentence within 29 the standard range. The court shall impose a term of community
30 custody between 12 and 24 months for any standard range sentence of 31 zero days to 36 months. The court shall impose a term of community
32 custody between 12 months and 36 months for any standard range
33 sentence that is longer than 36 months. The actual length of 34 community custody within these ranges shall be at the discretion of 35 the court.

36 (a) When the court imposes the term of community custody, the 37 department shall assign the defendant to a community custody officer
38 with mental health training or to a special needs unit or behavioral 39 health unit if one exists.

1 (b) The court shall impose conditions related to the needs of the 2 defendant, which shall include treatment and supervision in the 3 community. The conditions are set forth in subsection (5) of this 4 section.

5 (c) The court shall schedule regular progress hearings for the 6 defendant. Progress hearings shall occur as frequently as needed to 7 meet the needs of the defendant.

8 (d) Before any progress hearing, the department and any treatment
9 provider shall submit a written report informing the parties of the 10 defendant's progress and compliance with treatment. At the progress
11 hearing, the court shall hear from the parties regarding the 12 defendant's compliance and may modify the conditions of community
13 custody if the modification serves the interests of justice and the 14 best interests of the defendant.

15 (5)(a) If the court imposes this sentencing alternative, the 16 court may impose any condition recommended by any of the written 17 reports regarding the defendant, and such other conditions as the 18 court considers appropriate.

19 (b) In addition, the court may require the defendant to:

20 (i) Comply with chemical dependency assessments and treatment
21 recommendations if there is an indication that the defendant has a 22 dual diagnosis which includes mental disability or impairment and 23 substance abuse;

24 (ii) Comply with urinalysis or breathalyzer monitoring if needed;

25 (iii) Meet with treatment providers for counseling, behavior
26 management, medication management, assessments, and group therapy
27 treatment as requested by the treatment providers;

28 (iv) Take medications as prescribed, including monitoring of 29 compliance with medication if needed;

30 (v) Devote time to specific employment, education, or training if 31 able;

32 (vi) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries;

33 (vii) Notify the court or community corrections officers when 34 changing address, employment, or treatment provider;

35 (viii) Report as directed to their community corrections officer;

36 (ix) Sign releases of information with treatment providers to 37 allow for the free exchange of information for the duration of the 38 length of supervision imposed by the court;

39 (x) Pay court-ordered legal financial obligations;

40 (xi) Perform community restitution work; and

1 (xii) Stay out of areas designated by the sentencing court.

2 (c) The court may prohibit the offender from:

3 (i) Using alcohol or nonprescribed controlled substances if
4 substance abuse is part of the diagnosis; or alcohol or nonprescribed
5 controlled substances are contraindicated by medications prescribed
6 for management of the mental disability. The court may order the 7 department to monitor for the use of alcohol or nonprescribed
8 controlled substances if the court prohibits use of those substances.
9 The offender may be required to pay a fee of thirty dollars per month
10 to offset the costs of supervision if they are financially able.
11 Under no circumstances shall a person on public assistance or 12 receiving social security be assessed supervision fees;

13 (ii) Committing any new violations of criminal law.

14 (6) The court may bring the defendant sentenced under this
15 section back to court at any time to evaluate the defendant's
16 progress with treatment or to determine if any violations have 17 occurred.

18 (a) If the defendant is returned to court, the court may modify
19 the terms of the community custody or impose sanctions if the court
20 finds that the conditions have been violated or that different or 21 additional terms are in the best interest of the defendant.

22 (b) The court may order the defendant to serve a term of total
23 confinement for violating the terms of community custody or failing
24 to make satisfactory progress in treatment. Alternatives to total
25 confinement shall be the preferred manner of addressing violations.

26 (c) The court shall schedule a termination hearing one month
27 prior to the end of the defendant's community custody. A termination
28 hearing may also be scheduled if the department or the state reports
29 that the defendant has violated the terms of community custody
30 imposed by the court. At that hearing, the court may:

31 (i) Authorize the department to terminate the defendant's
32 community custody status on the expiration date; or

33 (ii) Continue the hearing to a date before the expiration date of 34 community custody, with or modifying the conditions of community 35 custody; or

36 (iii) Revoke the sentencing alternative and impose a term of 37 total confinement within the standard sentence range or impose an 38 exceptional sentence below the standard sentencing range if 39 compelling reasons are found by the court or the parties agree to the 40 downward departure. The defendant will receive credit for time served

1 while supervised in the community against any term of total
2 confinement. The court must reduce to writing the substantial and 3 compelling reasons for revocation.

4 (7) An offender sentenced under the terms of this section shall
5 be subject to all rules relating to earned release time with respect
6 to any period served in total confinement.

7 (8) Costs of examinations and preparing treatment plans may be
8 paid, at the option of the county, from funds provided to the county
9 from the criminal justice treatment account under RCW 71.24.580.
