

2018 SEX OFFENDER MANAGEMENT CONFERENCE

YAKIMA CONVENTION CENTER

MAY 8-10

Greetings from the Governor

May 8, 2018

Welcome and thank you for attending the second Washington State Sex Offender Management Conference.

Washington continues to lead the nation in sex offender policy and management thanks to your hard work and dedication. In 2017, when we hosted the inaugural conference, your commitment to continuing education and attaining success led to us reaching capacity for that considerable venue. This year, I hope that you have the opportunity to network with others in the field and that you leave here with more tools and strategies for sustaining yourself in this challenging line of work.

A key initiative in my administration has been promoting wellness and well-being among state employees and all Washingtonians. So I am pleased that this year's conference places a spotlight on your personal sustainability as practitioners and leaders. I appreciate how demanding your jobs are and what a difficult environment we all work in. From the day two keynote speaker, Dr. Michael Bourke, head of the U.S. Marshals Service's Behavioral Analysis Unit, to workshops and peer discussions, I hope this conference is a turning point for sustaining your long-term commitment to this work as well as your own care and development.

Thank you for coming, and please accept my best wishes for a rewarding and productive meeting.

Very truly yours,

Jay Inslee
Governor

DAY 1: TUESDAY, MAY 8

BALLROOM

9–9:30 A.M.

CHECK-IN

9:30–10 A.M.

OPENING SPEAKER: Juli Ana Grant, Senior Policy Advisor – SMART Office

10–11:50 A.M.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Patty Wetterling, “Jacob’s Hope”

12:00 P.M.

LUNCH

Room A

Room B

Room 100

Room 200

1–1:50 P.M.

RSO coordinator 101: Part 1

Presenters: Dallas Dusek and
Tina Keller

Commercial sexual exploitation: Part 1

Presenters: Valiant Richey,
Peter Qualliotine, James
Olsen

From treatment to transition: Part 1

Presenters: Elena Lopez and
Dominic Winter

Juvenile registration 101

Presenter: Jedd Pelander

2–2:50 P.M.

RSO coordinator 101: Part 2

Presenters: Dallas Dusek and
Tina Keller

Commercial sexual exploitation: Part 2

Presenter: Valiant Richey

From treatment to transition: Part 2

Presenters: Elena Lopez and
Dominic Winter

Treating sexual offenders who have intellectual/ developmental disabilities

Presenters: Christine Gomes,
Brittany West, Steve
Donovan, Amanda Fenrich

3–3:50 P.M.

Sex offender supervision in the Digital Age

Presenter: Matthew
McDaniel

Legislative updates

Presenter: John Cummings

Children’s Administration overview: Sexually Aggressive Youth and Physically Aggressive/ Assaultive Youth programs

Presenters: Joshua
Koutecky, Katrina Tangedahl,
Chris McLaughlin

End of Sentence Review Committee 101

Presenters: Jacob Bezanson,
Jedd Pelander, Victoria
Roberts

4–4:50 P.M.

Face-to-face RSO contacts

Presenter: Allan O’Neill

Skill building in sex offender treatment

Presenters: Alina Shaw and Megan Reese

State sex offender public website and additional victims notification resources

Presenters: Terrina Peterson and Steven Briggs

End of Sentence Review Committee 101

Presenters: Jacob Bezanson,
Jedd Pelander, GayLynn
Jackson, Victoria Roberts

DAY 1: TUESDAY, MAY 8

LEGEND

All interested

Juveniles

Law enforcement only

Tribal members

Community Corrections

Law enforcement

Treatment providers

Victims services

Room 300

Room F

Room G

Room H

DOC's Sex Offender Treatment and Assessment Program: Part 1

Presenters: Corey McNally and Faith Golden

Understanding risk for sex offenders

Presenters: Renee Schuiteman, Jacob Bezanson, Hilary Williams

Q&A with Patty Wetterling

1–1:50 P.M.

DOC's Sex Offender Treatment and Assessment Program: Part 2

Presenters: Corey McNally and Faith Golden

Prosecuting failure to register cases

Presenter: John Cummings

Juvenile Supervision and Special Sex Offender Disposition Alternative programs

Presenter: Don Loen

2–2:50 P.M.

Best practices in supervision with early career treatment providers

Presenters: John Gruenewald and Megan Reese

3–3:50 P.M.

Cases involving familial victims

Presenters: Rebecca Kedigh and Mallorie Hardesty

Treating youth with sexual behavioral issues in the community

Presenter: Ken Schafer

Reentry 101: Supporting successful transition by offering reentry pathways

Presenters: Danielle Armbruster, Jim Harms, Franklyn Smith

4–4:50 P.M.

DAY 2: WEDNESDAY, MAY 9

8–10:50 A.M.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Michael Bourke - "Safeguarding" / BALLROOM

11–11:50 A.M.

Room A	Room B	Room 100	Room 200
LE ALL U.S. Marshals Service Presenter: Bill Downey	LP CC VS Exiled in America: Sex Offender Reentry and Housing Policy Presenter: Chris Dum	LE J Child sex trafficking Presenter: Kyle McNeal	TP Female sex offenders: Who are they and why do we treat them? Presenters: Cathi Harris, Dana Hufford, Stephanie Pitkin

12:00 P.M.

LUNCH / BALLROOM

1–1:50 P.M.

Room A	Room B	Room 100	Room 200
LE Human trafficking Presenter: Capt. Michael Edwards	ALL Q&A with the author of "Exiled in America" Presenter: Chris Dum	TP Assisting those with intellectual disability increase their response to treatment Presenters: Mary-Catherine Kenny, Nikki Rymer, Rachel DeLateur	LE J Integration of electronic storage detection K-9 in your case Presenters: Det. Ian Polhemus and Police Dog Bear

2–2:50 P.M.

LE When sex offenders roar Presenter: Fred Wist	LE J Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force overview Presenter: Capt. Michael Edwards	TP "It's not denial if it isn't true": Working with sex offenders in pre-contemplation Presenters: Joseph Bigelow and Kimberly Stavrum	LP VS Rape culture: What is it and what can we do about it? Presenter: Kerry McCarthy
---	--	--	---

3–3:50 P.M.

LE Statutory rape and sex offender registration: Lessons learned Presenter: Eric Eisenberg	TP Improving sex offender treatment delivery Presenters: Alina Shaw and Henry Abghari	LE Treatment 101 Presenters: Cathi Harris, Amanda DeBleeker, Jerry Finley	LP CC VS The Indeterminate Sentence Review Board: Part 1 Presenters: Kecia Rongen, Jeff Patnode, Sheila Lewallen, Kristi Busch
--	---	---	--

4–4:50 P.M.

LE Public records and electronic records keeping Presenter: Sara di Vittorio	LP Providing expert testimony Presenter: Brad Meryhew	TP High Acuity Milieu development Presenters: Brandon Duncan and Catriona Braid	ALL The Indeterminate Sentence Review Board: Part 2 Presenters: Kecia Rongen, Jeff Patnode, Sheila Lewallen, Kristi Busch
--	---	---	---

ALL All interested

J Juveniles

LEO Law enforcement only

T Tribal members

CC Community Corrections

LE Law enforcement

TP Treatment providers

VS Victims services

DAY 2: WEDNESDAY, MAY 9

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Michael Bourke - "Safeguarding" / BALLROOM

8–10:50 A.M.

Room 300

Room F

Room G

Room H

11–11:50 A.M.

LUNCH / BALLROOM

12:00P.M.

Room 300

Room F

Room G

Room H

1–1:50 P.M.

Working with, rather than against, denial: Part 1

Presenter: Brent Borg

What could the role of an advocate look like?

Presenters: Maddie Graves-Wilson, Sheila Lewallen, Darby Stewart

Sex offender treatment in the community

Presenters: Minna Swartz and Sharese Jones

2–2:50 P.M.

Working with, rather than against, denial: Part 2

Presenter: Brent Borg

Tribal nation networking and SMART Office Q&A

Facilitator: Julia Ana Grant

3–3:50 P.M.

Juvenile supervision and Juvenile Rehabilitation's treatment model: Part 1

Presenter: Jedd Pelander

Less restrictive alternative panel

Panelists: Sonja Hardenbrook, Tiffany Pate, Chris Ervin, Jennifer Williams

4–4:50 P.M.

Juvenile supervision and Juvenile Rehabilitation's treatment model: Part 2

Presenter: Jedd Pelander

71.09 commitment process and less restrictive alternative

Presenters: Fred Wist and Tiffany Pate

Sexual assault prevention: What is being done and how can we contribute?

Presenter: Maddie Graves-Wilson

DAY 3: THURSDAY, MAY 10

	Room A	Room B	Room 100	Room 200
8–8:50 A.M.	All Darkness to Light's Stewards of Children®: Part 1 Presenter: Lisa Wahl		LE Judgement and sentencing overview Presenter: Jonathan Meyer	LE DOC and its role in community supervision Presenters: Theresa Engdahl, Randy van Zandt, Kristine Skipworth, Dana Osborne
9–9:50 A.M.	All Darkness to Light's Stewards of Children®: Part 2 Presenter: Lisa Wahl		LEO Offender Watch Q&A	TP Trauma-informed care Presenter: Sara Windsheimer
10–10:50 A.M.			LEO SONAR quarterly meeting	LE VS J Sexual abuse – through the medical eye Presenter: Lisa Wahl
11–11:50 A.M.	ALL Closing presentaion: WordWatch Presenter: Mary Laskowski		LEO SONAR quarterly meeting
12:00 P.M.	LUNCH / BALLROOM
	ALL All interested	J Juveniles	LEO Law enforcement only	T Tribal members
	CC Community Corrections	LE Law enforcement	TP Treatment providers	VS Victims services

DAY 3: THURSDAY, MAY 10

Room 300	Room F	Room G	Room H
			ALLSpecial Commitment Center panelPanelists: Elena Lopez, Tony Bowie, Craig Mingay	8–8:50 A.M.
CCHelping offenders make and maintain healthy relationshipsPresenters: Lisa Dandescu and Elsbeth Stebbins			ALLLaw enforcement panelPanelists: Barry Folsom, Genell Price, Jamey McGinty	9–9:50 A.M.
TPMaking sense of sex offenders and what are we talking about? Part 1Presenters: Holly Coryell and Michael O’Connell	LPMandatory reporting and the Prison Rape Elimination ActPresenters: Kay Heinrich, Kathleen James, Eric Crawford	CCEarly release date housing voucher programPresenter: Teresa Carlson	ALLCommunity Corrections panelPanelists: Theresa Engdahl, Chad Hettinga, Karen Blatman-Byers, Kristine Skipworth, Shantel Ealy	10–10:50 A.M.
TPMaking sense of sex offenders and what are we talking about? Part 2Presenters: Holly Coryell and Michael O’Connell				11–11:50 A.M.
LUNCH / BALLROOM				12:00 P.M.

YAKIMA CONVENTION CENTER

South Ballroom

100	600
200	500
300	400

Lobby 1

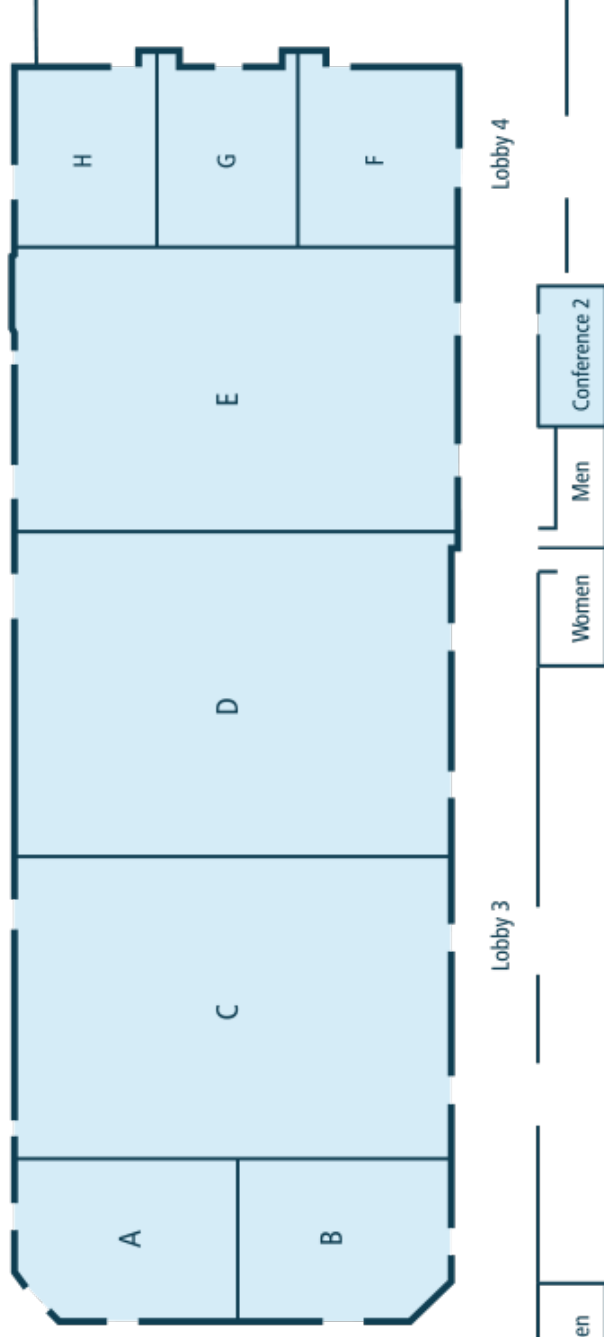

Lobby 2

Conference 1

Men

Women

Senator Alex Deccio Ballroom

South Hallway

Lobby 3

Women

Men

Conference 2

Outdoor Plaza

OPENING SPEAKER

Juli Ana Grant, Senior Policy Advisor

SMART Office, US Department of Justice

Juli Ana Grant is a senior policy advisor for the Office of Sex Offender Sentencing, Monitoring, Apprehending, Registering, and Tracking (SMART) in the U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Justice Programs. She advises states and tribes on sex offender registration and notification. In addition, Ms. Grant provides training and technical assistance to states and tribes on matters related to sex offender management, including specialized trainings for tribes that are developing these systems for the first time. Ms. Grant also works on the Tribal Access Project, a collaborative project providing tribes with the ability to access federal information-sharing databases, and the Native American Sex Offender Management project, which assists and supports tribes monitoring offenders in their communities. Prior to taking her position at SMART in 2010, Ms. Grant worked for the Office on Violence Against Women.

Prior to the Department of Justice, Ms. Grant managed the Sex Offense Management and Domestic Violence Programs and the Tribal Justice Exchange Project at the Center for Court Innovation, overseeing development and implementation of sex offense management programs, specialized sex offense courts and domestic violence courts in New York state, including developing collaborative projects, coordinating grant writing for innovative approaches, training advocates and other professionals and participating in countywide and statewide management committees. As part of the Tribal Justice Exchange Project team, Ms. Grant helped ensure tribal communities had access to training and ongoing technical assistance about problem-solving community-based practices and encouraged formal collaborations between traditional tribal justice systems and state and local court systems, as well as identifying and disseminating best practices developed in Indian country that could help strengthen public safety initiatives elsewhere in the U.S. In addition, she provided technical assistance to states on domestic violence issues to help design and develop protocols, research projects, service plans, resources and techniques for documenting results.

Before joining the center, Ms. Grant was the director of the primary victim services agency in Brooklyn Criminal, Community and Supreme Courts, the Kings County District Attorney's Office and the Brooklyn Family Justice Center, overseeing staff providing crisis intervention, social services and restitution to victims of crime, as well as child care to families involved in the criminal courts system. In addition to supervising staff and services, Ms. Grant participated in planning committees, expanded outreach to underserved communities and developed early intervention projects for domestic and sexual violence victims.

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Patty Wetterling

Jacob Wetterling Resource Center

Patty is the mother of Jacob Wetterling, who was abducted at the age of 11 by a masked gunman on Oct. 22, 1989, near his home in St. Joseph, Minnesota. Jacob's remains were discovered Sept. 2, 2016, on a farm in Paynesville, Minnesota. Patty has become a nationally recognized educator on the issues of child abduction and sexual exploitation of children. Patty and her husband, Jerry, co-founded the Jacob Wetterling Resource Center to educate communities about child safety issues. Patty also co-founded Team H.O.P.E., a national support group for families of missing children, and co-authored a book, "When Your Child is Missing: A Family Survival Guide," along with four other families.

Patty was selected by the Minneapolis Star Tribune as one of the 100 Most Influential Minnesotans of the Century. She is past director of Sexual Violence Prevention for the Minnesota Department of Health and was chair of the board of directors for the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children from 2012–15. Patty joined the Gundersen National Child Protection Training Center's Speakers Bureau in 2015.

Day one keynote:

Jacob's Hope

Patty will share her personal story of the investigation following her son's abduction as well as lessons learned from working with hundreds of searching families across the nation. She will offer suggestions about what was helpful, what could have been better and how to best keep long-term missing cases alive and active.

At the end of the presentation, participants will have more understanding of child abduction and the need for multijurisdictional collaboration during the ensuing investigation; learn about resources for investigators and how to work with the media and the victim's family; and better comprehend how missing children are located and the follow-up support needed for victims and their families.

Michael Bourke, Ph.D.

U.S. Marshals Service

Michael is the chief psychologist for the U.S. Marshals Service and serves as the head of its Behavioral Analysis Unit. He has been a federal law enforcement officer since 2000 and was deputized by the U.S.M.S. in 2008. Prior to joining the Marshals Service, he worked as a clinical psychologist for the federal prison system; from 2000 to 2006, he was assigned to the Sex Offender Treatment Program and Hypersexuality Management Program at the Federal Correctional Institution in Butner, North Carolina, and from July 2006 to September 2008, he worked in the Commitment and Treatment Program for Sexually Dangerous Persons at the same institution.

Michael is a graduate of the Department of Defense Polygraph Institute and has conducted several hundred polygraph examinations of sex offenders. He is a regular consultant to federal, state and local law enforcement agencies on matters pertaining to sexual criminality, interviewing/interrogation techniques and psychological safeguarding of law enforcement personnel. He has served as a consultant to NBC's "Nightly News" and "The Today Show," ABC's "The Oprah Winfrey Show" and has appeared on FOX's "America's Most Wanted," A&E's "Manhunters" and CNN's "The Hunt."

An active researcher, Michael co-authored the "Butner Study" and published seminal work on the use of tactical polygraph with sex offenders. He serves on the editorial boards for two professional journals. His clinical and research interests include the assessment of sexual offenders, the art of interviewing and interrogation, the detection of deception, secondary stress among law enforcement personnel and investigative profiling. He has served as an adjunct faculty member at Nova Southeastern University, Walter Reed Army Medical Center and the Defense Intelligence Agency.

In 2008, he received the highest research honor awarded in the field of child exploitation by the United Kingdom's Child Exploitation and Online Protection Centre, and in 2009, he was awarded the Pro-Humanitate Literary Award by the North American Resource Center for Child Welfare. He and his work have been profiled in the Monitor of the American Psychological Association, The Washington Post, The New York Times and several textbooks in forensic psychology.

In the area of community service, Michael serves as the Youth Protection Champion for the Boy Scouts of America's National Capital Area Council. In this capacity, he serves as the consultant on youth protection for 56,000 Scouts and 23,000 adult leaders.

Day two keynote: Safeguarding

This presentation focuses on ensuring the psychological well-being of investigative and support personnel who work in the field of sexual abuse and exploitation. The presenter reviews the literature in the area of secondary traumatic stress and vicarious traumatization, and summarizes important issues for investigators, prosecutors, probation officials, treatment providers and others who are exposed to disturbing material in the course of their work. Also addressed are ways to build resilience and the use of effective coping strategies.

The session will cover secondary traumatic stress and vicarious traumatization; those who are affected by secondary traumatic stress and vicarious traumatization and how they are affected; how to protect ourselves from the effects of secondary traumatic stress and vicarious traumatization; and how to manage or mitigate those effects.

NOTES

SPEAKERS

Henry Abghari, Ph.D. Special Commitment Center

After a run-in with the Islamic regime in Iran, Henry had to leave a doctoral program in applied linguistics incomplete and flee in 1998 to the United States where he was granted political asylum. Henry initially secured a position as an adjunct instructor at Gonzaga University in Spokane where he taught principles of second language acquisition and theories of learning in the master's program for teachers of English as a second language. Accepting a position which placed him in contact with developmentally challenged and mentally ill individuals, Henry changed course and entered a master's program in general psychology from Southern New Hampshire University. After he earned the degree in 2013, he pursued a doctoral program in general psychology with an emphasis in teaching and research at Northcentral University and obtained his Ph.D. in 2017. In 2012, he began working with the Department of Corrections as a mental health counselor and later as a psychology associate, providing treatment to seriously mentally ill offenders at the Special Offenders Unit of Monroe Corrections Complex. In this capacity, along with providing treatment, Henry has supervised and trained entry-level mental health counselors, taught in-service training sessions in suicide prevention and intervention, and presented in theories of motivation, team building and mitigation of the negative impacts of social loafing in monthly psychology in-service trainings. He is currently a psychology associate at the Special Commitment Center providing sex offender treatment to seriously violent sex offenders.

Danielle Armbruster Assistant secretary Reentry Division Department of Corrections

Danielle has more than 21 years of experience with the Washington State Department of Corrections. The majority of her experience has been with Correctional Industries, where she held a variety of positions. Her roles include general manager at Stafford Creek Corrections Center, where she managed the operations of CI's state-of-the-art furniture factory. In July 2011, she became the assistant director of Administrative Services and was then promoted to the director role in 2014. In December 2017, Danielle was named assistant secretary of the Reentry Division by DOC Secretary Steve Sinclair. Since that appointment, Danielle has been busy developing evidence-based enhancements to the department's reentry platform. Danielle's reentry-focused work continues beyond her position with the department. In February 2018, she was appointed by Gov. Jay Inslee to Washington's Statewide Reentry Council. On the national level, Danielle has also held the roles of chair for the National Correctional Industries Association Western Region and board member of the National NCIA Board, with which she holds the title of vice president of program development.

Jacob Bezanson, ESRC Chair Community Corrections Division Department of Corrections

Jacob has worked for the Department of Corrections for the past 12 years. He is currently the chair of the End of Sentence Review Committee and the law enforcement notification program manager, where he helps review more than 900 sex offenders per year for the primary purpose of community notification. Jacob is a certified Static 99R trainer. Prior to his current role in the department, he worked as a regional housing specialist, risk assessment specialist and community corrections officer in various locations throughout the state, including King, Snohomish, Spokane, Pend Oreille and Stevens counties. Before joining the department, he worked in juvenile probation and at a therapeutic group home for youth designated as sexually aggressive. Jacob has a master's of social work degree from Eastern Washington University and studied political science and philosophy at Western Washington University.

Joseph R. Bigelow, Psy.D. Special Commitment Center

Joseph received his doctorate in clinical psychology, with a focus in forensic practice, from Argosy University Twin Cities, Minnesota, in 2012. His pre-doctoral experience included working with at-risk youth in Minneapolis for two years at the Hennepin County Juvenile Detention Center, adult offenders at the Federal Correctional Institution Waseca for one year, military veterans at the Minnesota Veterans Home for one year, adult offenders at the Minnesota Department of Corrections for one year, and adults with severe and persistent mental illness for two years at People Incorporated. His post-doctoral experience includes various duties as an Army medical service officer for four years, one of those years as the executive officer for the second-largest U.S. Army medical clinic in the Republic of Korea. He has been working for the past year and a half on the Program

Area 2 team at the Washington State Special Commitment Center, working with civilly committed sexually violent predators in the pre-contemplation and contemplation stages of change. He has presented multiple workshops for mental health practitioners on using client tattoos as a source of clinical information and currently conducts faculty presentations on identifying and intervening with suicidality and self-harm. Joseph is a lifetime member of the 38th Parallel Medical Society and Psi Chi National Honor Society, and is a veteran of both the U.S. Marine Corps and the U.S. Army.

Karen Blatman-Byers
Community Corrections Division
Department of Corrections

Karen started her career in 1984 with the Washington State Department of Corrections at the McNeil Island Corrections Center library. In 1993, she accepted a position as a mental health counselor and assisted in the opening of the new mental health unit. In 1994, she transferred to Cedar Creek Corrections Center as classification counselor. In 1996, she transferred from prison to Community Corrections. While working as a community corrections officer in Tacoma, she was instrumental in the development of the Breaking the Cycle Alternative Release Program. In 2001, Governing for Results recognized its work. Over the years, the program's name has changed and it is still operating with good results. Karen has been a community corrections supervisor for 15+ years. For more than 12 years, she supervised the North and South Pierce County Special Assault units. She sat on the End of Sentencing Review Committee and works closely with law enforcement, registration offices, courts and treatment providers. The Department of Corrections is a partner with Tacoma/Pierce County CART-Child Abduction Response Team. In 2013, staff from her unit participated in the mock abduction field exercise. The team received national certification.

Brent Borg, M.S.W.
Health Services Division
Department of Corrections

Brent is the acting program manager for the Sex Offender Treatment and Assessment Program at Airway Heights Corrections Center. In his work for SOTAP, Brent works with the sex offender treatment program and in the Moving Forward Program for sex offenders who categorically deny their guilt. Prior to working for the Department of Corrections, Brent worked in Child Protective Services for the Department of Social and Health Services and as adjunct faculty in Eastern Washington University's School of Social Work.

Catriona Braid
Special Commitment Center
Department of Social Health and Services

Catriona moved to Washington in 2017 to pursue a career with the Department of Social and Health Services, where she currently serves as milieu specialist supervisor of the High Acuity Program at the Special Commitment Center on McNeil Island. She brings experience in leading therapeutic groups as well as a background in creative intervention and incentive techniques. Catriona attended Saint Mary's College in Moraga, California, and graduated in 2008 with a bachelor's in business administration. She began working at Charis Youth Center, a residential treatment facility for adolescents in Grass Valley, California, in 2010, and remained there until her relocation in 2017. Catriona worked as a therapeutic behavioral services coach, during which time she received certification in multiple intervention techniques, including life space crisis intervention and professional assault crisis training. Her role involved collaboration with multidisciplinary teams and teaching interventions to agency staff as well as client family members. She was appointed to the position of mental health services manager in 2016, when she assumed the role of programming for the Rehabilitative Enrichment Program as well as supervision of the therapeutic behavioral services department. She brings all her skills to her current position, where she is responsible for overseeing the scheduling and maintenance of high-acuity programming, supervision and coaching of milieu specialists, and ensuring consistent documentation necessary for tracking the success of the program. During her time in Washington, she has been certified in Washington state aggression replacement training and as a part of the psychiatric emergency response team.

Steven Briggs, NCA
Washington Association of
Sheriffs and Police Chiefs

Steven is WASPC's victim notification coordinator. He has worked in CSAPs, domestic violence shelters and crime victim service centers in the South Puget Sound region for more than 10 years advocating for individuals hurt or harmed by crime.

Kristi Busch
Hearing Investigator
Indeterminate Sentence Review Board

Kristi is a hearing investigator III with the ISRB. She has worked in the criminal justice system for 19 years in Colorado and Washington. She has worked with the sexual offender population in both prison and field settings. She started her career in corrections as a prison case manager in Colorado, and began working as a community corrections officer for the Washington State Department of Corrections in 2001. While working as a community corrections officer, she managed a caseload of sexual offenders in Pierce County, worked in the Law Enforcement Notification Program as a community corrections specialist with the Dynamic Risk Assessment Project and conducted staff training. She is a voting member of the ESRC and Sexually Violent Predator Subcommittee. Kristi has worked for the ISRB since 2013.

Teresa Carlson
Prisons Division
Department of Corrections

As an employee with the Department of Corrections, Teresa has worked in several positions during her 20 years of service. She began her career as a community corrections officer, a position she held for more than nine years. Then for the next three years, she supervised a caseload of sex offenders. Teresa then became a training specialist. While in this position, she trained staff in a variety of areas, including search and seizure, first aid and suicide prevention. She also taught at the Adult Services Academy in Burien where she trained newly hired CCOs. After seven years in this position, she returned to being a CCO at a community justice center, where she taught various trainings to offenders and was in charge of the work crew. In 2014, she was hired into her current position as regional housing specialist. Teresa is one of seven specialists throughout the state who are content experts on the ERD Housing Voucher program, collaborating with staff and stakeholders in meeting offender transitional housing needs. She must also act as a housing resource broker, developing new housing in her region, which spans from Walla Walla to Wenatchee. She also works with closely with local law enforcement and has established rapport with local law enforcement in Wenatchee, Tri-Cities, Walla Walla and Grant County.

Holly R. Coryell, Ph.D.
Special Commitment Center

Holly has worked in the field of sex offender treatment and evaluation for more than 15 years. She is currently the chief of forensic services at the Special Commitment Center in Washington. She was formerly the chief of resident treatment at the SCC (from 2010 to 2016) and previously held positions in the program as lead psychologist and senior forensic evaluator. Holly received her doctorate from Gallaudet University and consults with programs on issues related to the assessment and treatment of deaf individuals. Holly has been a member of SOCCPN for seven years and has held active membership in the Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers for more than 10 years. She is a SOCCPN board member and the current president of WATSA.

Eric Crawford
Juvenile Rehabilitation
Department of Social Health and Services

Eric has been the Prison Rape Elimination Act administrator for DSHS Juvenile Rehabilitation since 2013. He has been responsible for the statewide implementation of PREA standards in Juvenile Rehabilitation institutions and community facilities. Duties include establishing new and revising policies; developing, delivering and updating staff trainings and refreshers; creating contractor and volunteer training and resident education; creating new forms, processes and procedures; establishing quality assurance processes; ensuring compliance with PREA standards; and collecting and reporting data. Eric has extensive experience with the PREA standards and audit process. Over the past four years, he has been responsible for management and technical assistance during more than 15 federal PREA audits. He also completes annual internal audits at Juvenile Rehabilitation facilities to regularly assess each facility's compliance with the PREA standards. Eric has more than 10 years of experience working with juvenile offenders as an institutional residential counselor and a community counselor (parole). He also has 10 years of experience as a contracts administrator with DSHS. In 2015, Eric completed the week-long federal auditor's training and testing, and earned certification as a Department of Justice PREA auditor. He is considered the subject matter expert on juvenile facilities for the state of Washington.

John Cummings, J.D.
2017 Deputy Prosecuting Attorney of the Year

John is a deputy prosecuting attorney in the Pierce County Prosecutor's Office, where he has worked for 10 years. He prosecutes Class A felony sex offenses in the Special Assault Unit. He is a judge pro tem in Thurston County and a regular presenter on such topics as sex/kidnap offender registration and car theft prosecution. John was also named Deputy Prosecuting Attorney of the Year in 2017 by the Pierce County Sheriff's Department.

Lisa Dandescu, M.S.
Health Services Division
Department of Corrections

Lisa has worked in the Department of Corrections Sex Offender Treatment and Assessment Program since May 2000 as a sex offender treatment specialist and sex offender treatment supervisor and currently serves as the sex offender treatment program manager for the Monroe Correctional Complex SOTAP site. She is a certified trainer in Stable 2007 and Acute 2007.

Amanda DeBleeker, M.S.W.
Health Services Division
Department of Corrections

Amanda earned a bachelor's in psychology at the University of Washington with a clinical research focus with a minor in aging studies. She interned as a long-term care ombudsman and volunteered for SHIBA. Amanda then earned a Master in Social Work, for which she provided treatment services, resource connections and advocacy to older adults in Eastern Washington with co-occurring mental health disorders. She has worked as a sex offender treatment specialist in the institutional setting and the community for almost three years.

Rachel DeLateur, M.S., LMHC,
GMHS
Special Commitment Center
Department of Social Health and Services

Rachel graduated with a master's degree in community counseling in 2002 from Southern Adventist University in Tennessee, where she was member of Psi Chi national honors society. She is currently licensed to practice in the state of Washington and holds certification as a geriatric mental health specialist. While currently working on her Ph.D. in clinical psychology through Walden University, she is employed as a psychology associate at the Special Commitment Center in the newly developed High Acuity Program. Since 1999, she has worked in the mental health field in a variety of settings. As a crisis counselor in the Providence St. Peter's Emergency Department in Olympia for two years, she conducted psychological triage, assessing mental health needs versus available resources. She has also worked in in- and outpatient programs for a variety of clients, including children, adolescents, victims of domestic abuse, and most recently, adults who have been civilly committed as sexually violent predators.

Sara Di Vittorio, J.D.
Snohomish County Prosecuting
Attorney's Office

Sara Di Vittorio is the Public Records Civil Deputy Prosecuting Attorney for Snohomish County. In this position, Sara handles all public records litigation involving Snohomish County and provides advice to Snohomish County's departments on all aspects of records retention and public records disclosure. She is one of the Governor's appointees to the Public Records Exemption Accountability Committee (the "Sunshine Committee"). Sara also provides regular training to Snohomish County employees, other local jurisdictions, and professional organizations around the state on the PRA and GR 31.1.

Prior to joining Snohomish County, Sara worked as an Assistant Attorney General for nine years including seven years in the Corrections Division. In that position, Sara was a primary legal advisor to and litigator for the Department of Corrections on public records and federal civil rights issues.

Sara received both her B.A. and her J.D. from the University of Washington.

Stephen Donovan, M.Ed.
Health Services Division
Department of Corrections

Steve began working with DOC in 2013, after working with children and adolescents in acute psychiatric and residential settings. He received his M. Ed. in clinical mental health counseling from Whitworth University in 2012. He also completed undergraduate studies there in organizational management in 2007. Prior to working in the mental health field, he worked for a decade in construction material management and warehousing. He likes to travel all over with his lovely wife, kids and occasionally small, yippy dogs. He has worked with responsivity groups since he began working with DOC, as well as facilitated several adjunct groups.

Bill Downey
U.S. Marshals Service

Bill began working with the U.S. Marshals Service in the District of Nebraska in 1996. While in Omaha, he was the warrant coordinator and worked with the Omaha Area Fugitive Task Force. In 1999, Bill transferred to the Eastern District of Washington. In Spokane, he

Christopher P. Dum, Ph.D.
Kent State University

Christopher is an assistant professor in the Department of Sociology at Kent State University. He received a Ph.D. in criminal justice from the University at Albany in 2014. He has published articles in the journal Criminology & Public Policy, and "Sexual Abuse: A Journal of Research and Treatment." His 2016 book, "Exiled in America: Life on the Margins in a Residential Motel" (Columbia University Press) examines motel life in the context of sex offender reentry and homelessness. "Exiled in America" received the 2018 Scholarly Achievement Award from the North Central Sociological Association, an honorable mention in the 2017 PROSE Awards and was long listed for the 2017 Andrew Carnegie Medal of Excellence in Nonfiction. Christopher has appeared on NPR's "Marketplace" with Kai Ryssdal as well as "The Doc Project" on CBC. He is also the co-founder of the ID-13 Prison Writer's and Literacy Project, based at Lake Erie Correctional Institution in Conneaut, Ohio.

has served as the warrant coordinator, seized asset coordinator and firearms instructor. In 2007, Bill was tasked with enforcing the Adam Walsh Act, and since that time has indicted more than 50 sex offenders in federal court for violations of 18 USC 2250 – failure to register.

Brandon Duncan, M.A., LMHC
Special Commitment Center
Department of Social Health and Services

Brandon is currently employed by the Special Commitment Center as the therapies supervisor in the Department of Resident Treatment. In this role, Brandon plans, directs, implements and documents the high acuity milieu program and serves as a voting member of the senior clinical team. Brandon brings an understanding of complex social structures and clinical knowledge to interdisciplinary and interdepartmental treatment planning. He graduated from the University of Washington in 2003 with a degree in interdisciplinary arts and sciences, with concentrations in cultural studies and sociology. Brandon later attended the Seattle School of Theology and Psychology and graduated in 2008 with a degree in society and culture. He received a degree in counseling psychology in 2010 from the same school. Brandon completed an internship and an externship with the Department of Corrections from 2009 to 2011, conducting mental health evaluations, short-term case management and offering case consultation to community corrections officers. In 2012, Brandon worked for Community Psychiatric Clinic's Belltown Seattle location as a case manager before beginning his work at the SCC. His client base was individuals with chronic mental illness who engaged in aggressive and assaultive behavior. Brandon is a master instructor in psychiatric emergency response team training, a Criminal Justice Training Commission certified level 1 control tactics instructor, a certified mental health first aid instructor and a licensed mental health counselor. He holds memberships in the Sex Offender Civil Commitment Programs Network and the American Psychological Association, as well as the state and national Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers.

Dallas Dusek
King County Sheriff's Office

Dallas has been with KCSO for almost 13 years. Her responsibilities include tracking and managing offender registration and ensuring compliance, and communicating with local and national law enforcement agencies and probation offices. Dallas compiles file material to review and ensure offenders have a registration requirement and then prescreens it for risk level assessment. She writes initial reports for failure to register cases based on different factors that assist the unit detectives in their filing of felony cases.

Shantel Ealy
Community Corrections Division
Department of Corrections

Shantel began her career with the Washington State Department of Corrections in 1999 at Coyote Ridge Corrections Center as an office assistant senior in the Medical Unit. In 2004, she completed her Bachelor of Arts at Eastern Washington University and immediately accepted a temporary position as a community corrections officer. In 2005, she relocated to the King County area for a permanent position as a CCO in the Renton Field Office. In 2006, she returned to the Tri-Cities for a position in the Pasco Field Office. In 2015, she earned her Associate in Science degree from Columbia Basin College in project management. In 2015, Shantel accepted a position facilitating the Work Crew Program and the Franklin County Violator Program as a CCO3. As a CCO, she has submitted sentencing recommendations to the court for sex offense crimes and supervised sex offenders in the community. She is a designated Interstate Case SME and carries a primarily interstate caseload. She has been a member of the National Association of Blacks in Criminal Justice and Washington State Diversity teams, and has participated in various focus groups, talking circles and pilot programs.

Capt. Michael Edwards
Seattle Police Department

Mike is a 38-year veteran of the Seattle Police Department who currently holds the permanent rank of captain. Mike has had a variety of assignments with the SPD including patrol, harbor patrol, SWAT, proactive undercover narcotics, traffic, special assignments unit, narcotics lieutenant, investigations procedure committee commander, captain of the Education & Training Section and Internet Crimes Against Children Section. Mike is also the commander of the SPD/ Washington State Criminal Justice Training Commission Undercover School and instructor on supervising undercover operations. He is currently the High Risk Victims Section commander for SPD and commander of the Washington State ICAC Task Force, as well as the human trafficking detail for SPD. Mike has a Bachelor of Arts in sociology from the University of Texas with minors in economics and foreign languages. He has been chosen as a public speaker on a variety of topics, including labor/ management relationships, police integrity and community policing, among others.

Eric Eisenberg, J.D.
Lewis County Prosecuting
Attorney's Office

Eric is a civil deputy prosecuting attorney for Lewis County. He received a B.A. from Swarthmore College in Pennsylvania and a J.D. from Duke Law School. Thereafter, he served as a law clerk to Justice Debra Stephens of the Washington State Supreme Court before becoming a criminal prosecutor, first for Thurston County and then for Lewis County. He joined the Lewis County Prosecuting Attorney's Office in 2011, and transferred from criminal to civil practice during 2015. His duties include, among other things, litigation on behalf of Lewis County and advice to its agencies and staff, including the Lewis County Sheriff's Office.

Theresa Engdahl
Community Corrections Division
Department of Corrections

Theresa (Tracy) is the community corrections supervisor for the Washington State Department of Corrections Spokane Special Assault Unit. Tracy has almost 40 years of experience working in the field of corrections and rehabilitation, and has been with the DOC Special Assault Unit for the past 19 years. Tracy supervises 10 community corrections officers who supervise approximately 300 registered sex offenders in the Spokane area. Her career has included being a probation counselor and supervisor with Santa Clara County, California, Juvenile Probation; U.S. Probation as an officer; district and municipal court probation; and a mental health therapist. Tracy is passionate about balancing assistance, accountability and encouragement in the supervision and management of sexual offenders. She understands that an individual on supervision who is successful is what creates a safer community.

Chris Ervin
Community Corrections Division
Department of Corrections

Chris is a community corrections officer with the Washington State Department of Corrections. He started working as a CCO in the DOC King County Special Assault Unit in 2006 and transferred to the DOC Civil Commitment Program for Sexually Violent Predators in 2012. His current duties include supervising LRA cases in King, Kitsap and Spokane counties. Prior to working for the DOC, Chris was a residential treatment counselor at a group home for sexually aggressive youth. He holds a B.A. in theatre from the University of Washington.

Amanda Fenrich, M.A.
Health Services Division
Department of Corrections

Amanda (Mandy) is a sex offender treatment specialist for the Department of Corrections. She currently conducts individual and group therapy to male sex offenders — specifically male sex offenders with intellectual disabilities, cognitive deficits and other responsivity needs. Amanda received her master's degree in forensic mental health from Concordia University. She is currently working on a Ph.D. in the advanced studies of human behavior through Capella University. Amanda has also worked as a community corrections officer for the Washington State Department of Corrections. Part of her time as a CCO was in the Special Needs Unit, managing a caseload that included those with cognitive deficits and mental health issues. Her experience includes work as an investigator for the Arizona Department of Child Safety. Amanda serves as an advisory board member for the Concordia University Forensic Behavioral Health Program. She recently co-authored an article in the Journal of Psychology and Psychiatry and continues to research various mental health-related topics in the criminal justice system.

Jerry Finley, M.A.
Health Services Division
Department of Corrections

Jerry is a community corrections specialist who provides community treatment for sex offenders in Clark and Cowlitz counties using an evidence-based program to help them adjust to life outside of prison and keep them from re-offending. Jerry knows that the work he does alongside law enforcement and community corrections officers helps to keep the community safe. He served his country honorably in the U.S. Navy for 26 years and is now directing his talents to working with the Washington State Department of Corrections. His DOC career involves working as a corrections officer at the Washington State Reformatory and as a mental health counselor at the Special Offenders Unit in Monroe. Jerry holds a master's degree in counseling from Multnomah University and a master's degree in government from Regent University in addition to master's degrees in public administration and homeland defense.

Barry Folsom
Detective
Clark County Sheriff's Office

Barry has worked in law enforcement for 29 years, all with the Clark County Sheriff's Office. He has held a variety of positions, including patrol, field training and investigations. Barry has been a background investigator, child abuse detective and a sex offender registration detective. For 12 years, he was assigned to the Children's Justice Center where he investigated allegations of physical and sexual abuse of children. Barry presented at the Mid-Atlantic Child Abuse Conference in Ocean City, Maryland. In 2014, Barry was assigned to the Sex Offender Registration Unit. He oversees registration of almost 1,400 registered sex and kidnapping offenders. He is tasked with assigning risk levels to the offenders, monitoring home verifications, updating changes to the offender's status and conducting investigations on alleged out-of-compliance offenders.

Maddie Graves-Wilson
Beyond Survival

Maddie is the executive director of Beyond Survival, Grays Harbor County Sexual Assault Resource Center. During her time as a Prison Rape Elimination Act advocate, Maddie ran a trauma-focused men's group at Stafford Creek Corrections Center. She believes that it is the communities' responsibility to redefine cultural norms to prevent sexual violence. At Beyond Survival, Maddie and her team have worked over the past few years to build a network of schools and service providers to assist in sexual abuse prevention education with youth and adults in efforts to educate and prevent sexual violence. She will be graduating with a Master of Social Work from Eastern Washington University this June.

Faith Golden, Ph.D., LMHC
Health Services Division
Department of Corrections

Faith earned a B.A. in psychology in 1992, an M.A. in agency counseling in 1995 and a Ph.D. in clinical psychology in 2017. She is licensed in both Washington (LMHC) and Alaska (LPC). She began her counseling career as a member of the military where she worked as a combat stress control specialist from 1992–2001. In 2001, she began working in various departments of corrections in Alaska, Washington and Minnesota before returning to Washington to make it her permanent home. For the 10 years she was with the Alaska DOC, she worked as a mental health clinician while implementing and assessing the department's 48-week Offender Treatment Program for general population prisoners. From 2011 to the present, she has worked in sex offender treatment in the Washington and Minnesota departments of corrections.

Christine Gomes, Psy.D.
Health Services Division
Department of Corrections

Christine is currently a psychologist 4 in the Department of Corrections Sex Offender Treatment and Assessment Programs. In this position, she is responsible for helping to make programmatic decisions, consulting with therapists on difficult cases and directly supervising one psychology associate, who provides sex offender treatment to individuals at the Special Offender Unit, a residential treatment unit for individuals with serious mental illness. Prior to her current position, she provided sex offender treatment to residents of the Special Commitment Center on McNeil Island, all of whom had been deemed to be sexually violent predators by the court. Through her graduate training, she worked with individuals with serious mental illness in various facilities, including Patton State Hospital in Patton, California, and the Oklahoma Forensic Center in Vinita, Oklahoma.

John Gruenewald, Ph.D.
Special Commitment Center

John is a licensed psychologist in the state of Washington. He received his doctoral degree in counseling psychology in 2009 from Washington State University. He is currently the community preparation team lead at the Special Commitment Center on McNeil Island where he supervises a team of clinicians who assist residents in transitioning to the community after a period of total confinement. Prior to his work at SCC, John developed and directed a master's-level counseling program where he provided supervision and oversight to master's-level clinicians and adjunct faculty. He has more than 12 years of teaching experience and nine years of counseling experience. He has advanced training in sex offender risk assessment and psychological diagnostics. John provides trainings on the Rorschach assessment, developing positive behavioral support plans and working with individuals with personality disorders.

Sonja Hardenbrook, J.D.
Snohomish County Public
Defender Association

Sonja earned her undergraduate in political science and history, with a minor in law, from Pacific Lutheran University. After receiving a Master of Arts in history from New Mexico State University, she graduated from the University of Washington School of Law in 2004. Sonja has worked at the Snohomish County Public Defender Association since 2003. She has done rotations in the misdemeanor and felony units as well as served for two years as supervisor of the district court unit. In 2013, she began Chapter 71.09RCW work where she carries a full caseload of pre-commit, post-commit and conditional release clients.

Mallorie Hardesty, M.A.
Health Services Division
Department of Corrections

Mallorie has worked as a sex offender treatment specialist for the past two years while completing her master's degree. She earned a bachelor's degree in psychology from the University of South Florida in 2014 and recently earned a master's degree in clinical mental health counseling from The Chicago School of Professional Psychology in April 2018. Someday, Mallorie would like to continue on her educational path and earn her doctorate in clinical psychology. Previously, she worked in community mental health in various roles, providing clinical support and intervention for individuals in both outpatient and inpatient settings. Mallorie has enjoyed her time working with the Department of Corrections and hopes to continue working with and learning from forensic populations.

Jim Harms
Reentry systems administrator
Reentry Division
Department of Corrections

Over the course of his career, Jim has developed a reputation for forging strong working relationships with criminal justice, public health and humans services partners to create cross-agency and cross-system collaboration that has contributed to successful offender reentry. Over the past 29 years, Jim has committed his academic and professional pursuits to public service in the field of adult corrections. Since March 2016, Jim assumed the responsibilities of a regional systems administrator, Reentry Division, DOC. He is currently the reentry system administrator responsible for overseeing the transition specialists, housing voucher specialist and veteran services supporting successful transition. From 2009 through 2014, Jim was a regional administrator in the Community Corrections Division. In this position, he oversaw community corrections in the Northwest Region from King County to Whatcom County.

For the five years prior to coming to the Department of Corrections, Jim was the community correction commander with the Snohomish County Sheriff's Office Bureau of Corrections. During that time, through partnerships that Jim initiated, Snohomish County Corrections, Snohomish County Human Services, Washington State Department of Corrections and community volunteers developed and offered 25 separate programs and services to the men and women housed in the Snohomish County Jail. Between 1989 and 2004, he worked as a program manager with the King County Department of Adult and Juvenile Detention.

Cathi Harris, M.A.
SOTAP director
Health Services Division
Department of Corrections

Cathi has a master's degree in special education and rehabilitation counseling, with a specialty in offender rehabilitation and law psychology, from the University of Arizona. In addition, she completed all coursework and a pre-doctoral internship toward a Ph.D. in psychology. She has more than 20 years of experience in program development, implementation and the treatment of sex offenders in total confinement and community settings, including working in Washington's and Arizona's sexually violent predator programs. Cathi currently is the director of the Sex Offender Treatment and Assessment Programs for the Washington Department of Corrections, overseeing prison and community-based treatment and the Risk Assessment Unit.

Kay Heinrich, Ph.D.
Prisons Division
Department of Corrections

Kay is the associate superintendent of programs at the Washington State Department of Corrections Airway Heights Correction Center. Kay has worked for WSDOC for 23 years researching, designing and implementing evidenced-based chemical dependency, therapeutic and right living communities, co-occurring and cognitive-based programs throughout the department's prisons and community work release and criminal justice centers. One of the associate superintendent's responsibilities is that of Prison Rape Elimination Act compliance manager, who oversees maintenance of the Department of Justice's PREA standards and state PREA policy. This position assures and recognizes the right of staff and offenders to be free from sexual misconduct and to uphold the department's zero tolerance for all forms of sexual misconduct. WSDOC recognizes, too, the right of staff and offenders to be free from retaliation for reporting sexual misconduct.

Chad Hettinga
Community Corrections Division
Department of Corrections

Chad is a Washington state community corrections officer in the Special Assault Unit in Spokane, Washington. He has been working in the probation and parole field for more than 17 years with a variety of offender populations, including the mentally ill, gang and sex offenders. Currently he is supervising sex offenders and least restrictive alternative cases. Chad has facilitated for the Department of Corrections in a number of areas, including training defensive tactics, firearms qualification and use-of-force policy and procedures. In addition, he is part of the Employee Recognition Committee and Diversity Council for the Department of Corrections.

Dana Hufford, M.S.W.
Health Services Division
Department of Corrections

Dana has been working with sex offenders through the Department of Corrections for approximately 20 years. She has worked as a community corrections officer with the Special Needs Unit, a community corrections sex-offender assessment specialist and now a sex offender treatment provider. She has enjoyed witnessing the treatment of sex offenders evolve into a practice based on empirical research.

GayLynn Jackson
Pierce County Sheriff's Office

GayLynn has been with the Pierce County Sheriff's Office since 1990. She is the specialist/RSO coordinator assigned to the Sex and Kidnap Offender Registration Unit and is responsible for offender risk-level assessments and community notifications. She is a member of the End of Sentence Review Committee and the juvenile subcommittee.

Kathleen James
Prisons Division
Department of Corrections

Kathy is a correctional specialist at Airway Heights Corrections Center where she serves as the liaison providing expert consultation and technical assistance on Prison Rape Elimination Act compliance for the facility. She also manages PREA investigations there, which includes providing technical assistance and oversight for PREA investigators. She also serves as the PREA subject matter expert on development and/or revision to required PREA training for staff, contractors, volunteers and offenders. Kathy works very closely with the sex offender treatment program at AHCC and understands the complexity of how the treatment helps promote safer communities through rehabilitation and knowledge. She has been in her current position since March 2017 as the correctional specialist 2 for PREA. Prior to her appointment in this position, she served nine years as a secretary senior assisting the correctional program manager of programs. She worked with the Department of Natural Resources to set up training for offenders to become certified wildland firefighters. She is the facility subject matter expert for the Offender Management Network Information, or OMNI system, that tracks all programming taking place at AHCC.

Sharese Jones, M.A.
Health Services Division
Department of Corrections

Sharese began her career with the Washington State Department of Corrections in 2002 at the Washington

Corrections Center in Shelton where she worked as a correctional officer and classification counselor. After obtaining her bachelor's degree from The Evergreen State College in 2006, she transitioned to Community Corrections in 2007. For the next eight years, she worked as a community corrections officer in the Thurston County area. In 2015, she joined DOC's Sex Offender Treatment and Assessment Program as a community sex offender treatment specialist in Thurston County. She graduated from Saint Martin's University in 2016 with a Master of Arts in counseling psychology and she is currently working toward licensure as a mental health counselor.

Rebecca Kedigh, M.A.
Health Services Division
Department of Corrections

Rebecca has an M.A. degree in counseling psychology from Argosy University in Seattle and a bachelor of science in business administration from Stevens Henager College of Business in Salt Lake City. Her clinical experience includes working with individuals of all ages providing individual therapy addressing various psychopathology presentations including mental illness, trauma and personality disorders. Currently, she is a sex offender treatment specialist with the Washington State Department of Corrections working with moderate to high-risk sex offenders using both group and individual therapy.

Tina Keller
Project/program manager II
King County Sheriff's Office

Tina is a project/program manager II with the King County Sheriff's Office Registered Sex Offender Unit, where she has been employed for 26 years. She has a background as a fingerprint identification technician in the AFIS Unit. As a sign of things to come, Tina was fingerprinting and registering sex offenders long before she made the move to the Special Assault/RSO Unit in 1998. Managing administrative and technological projects that affect the RSO Unit's functions and ensuring their compliance with sex offender mandates is Tina's primary responsibility. She manages King County's RSO address verification grant, including its operation and fiscal accountability. With years of experience in tracking sex offenders in Washington's largest county, Tina has seen the growth of her department's sex offender unit and is excited to be part of the team who continues to help keep citizens safe.

Mary-Catherine Kenny, M.S., Ed.S.
Special Commitment Center

Mary-Catherine received a Master of Science and educational specialist degrees in professional counseling at Georgia State University in Atlanta. Her early career was focused on working with adolescents and children using family, group and play therapy in several community health settings. She is a published researcher and presented the research teams' findings on "The Relationship of Multidimensional Perfectionism to Psychological Birth Order" at the American Psychological Association conference. Currently, she is a psychology associate with the Special Needs Team at the Special Commitment Center on McNeil Island. She works with developmentally and cognitively disabled individuals in both group and case management settings providing sex offender specific treatment adapted for their unique needs and responsivity issues.

Joshua A. Koutecky
Department of Social Health and Services

Joshua has been working in the field of adolescent services since 1999, when he began his career as an intern with the Spokane County Juvenile Court, as well as day staff for a JJRA-contracted group home (Riverview Youth Center). Joshua has also worked in the juvenile justice and child welfare systems in Washington as a parole counselor, treatment coordinator (YSO and mental health) and program manager.

He is currently the regional programs supervisor for Children's Administration, supervising the SAY/PAAY programs for Region 1 (all of Eastern Washington). Joshua has a passion for working with troubled adolescents, and his focus is to ensure that youth receive appropriate/timely interventions so they may grow to be stable, functioning adults in our society. He received his undergraduate education in social theory/justice studies from Montana State University and has undertaken graduate courses toward a Master of Social Work.

Mary Laskowski
CourtWatch services and outreach coordinator

Mary has been working to end gender-based violence for the past 12 years. She has been with the King County Sexual Assault Resource Center since 2011, where she spent five years in the legal advocacy program before moving into her current role, where she focuses on coordinating a systems-wide response to sexual assault.

Sheila Lewallen, M.A., LMHC
Member, Indeterminate Sentence Review Board

Sheila began working with victims in 1979 as the legal advocate for the Women's Domestic Violence Shelter Program in Olympia. In 1983, she developed the Victim/Witness Program at the Thurston County Prosecutor's Office and worked in that office for 21 years. In 2004, Sheila began her career at Department of Corrections. She spent her first eight years as a community victim liaison providing services to victims in nine counties in the southwest region of the state. In early 2014, she moved into a position providing sex offender treatment to offenders releasing from prison. Since August 2015, she has been the victim liaison to the Indeterminate Sentence Review Board. In addition to her full-time employment, Sheila completed a six-month internship as a domestic violence treatment provider, designed and facilitated an empowerment for women group for survivors of domestic violence for several years and served on the Domestic Violence Fatality Review for Thurston County for several years. Sheila was an adjunct professor, teaching victimology at St. Martin's University for 12 years. She has a Master of Arts in counseling psychology degree and is a licensed mental health counselor.

Don Loen Yakima County Juvenile Court

Don began his career working with offenders in the U.S. Marine Corps as a corrections specialist. After his military service, he had a 17-year law enforcement career with the Washington State Patrol, Snohomish Police Department and Mukilteo Police Department. He was a supervisor, field training officer, collision technical investigator and use-of-force instructor during his law enforcement career. Don has worked the past four years as a probation counselor at the Yakima County Juvenile Court. He has a specialized caseload of juvenile sex offenders and manages the Court's SSODA program. He holds a Bachelor of Arts in criminal justice administration from Columbia College and is a member of WATSA, ATSA and the Yakima County Leveling Board.

Elena Lopez, Psy.D. Special Commitment Center Member, Sex Offender Policy Board

Elena is the chief of resident treatment at the Special Commitment Center on McNeil Island for the Washington State Department of Social and Health Services. She is a licensed psychologist and has worked for the past seven years with individuals detained and/or committed as sexually violent predators. Six of the seven years have been in Washington and one year in Kansas with Larned State Hospital's Sexual Predator Treatment Program during her APA internship. Prior to her work with the SCC, Elena completed training in California with the County of San Diego's Adult and Juvenile Forensic Services Department and Alvarado Parkway Institute Psychiatric Hospital. Her work included providing treatment to commercially sexually exploited children detained at the Girls' Rehabilitation Facility. She also addressed the impacts of gang affiliation, family systems and sexual victimization. Additionally, she has had training and experience treating and evaluating adults and children in inpatient and outpatient settings for various psychological issues. Prior to her work in psychology, Elena worked at the Fred Finch Youth Center Residential Rehabilitation Program as an instructional aide and was a substitute teacher for special education in California. In her current role at SCC, she assists with the clinical rotation of Western State Hospital's APA-accredited internship program and has been working to develop a more formalized approach to data collection in her department, as well as taking steps to improve the program in line with best practices and evidenced-based approaches outlined in the literature. She currently is a member of ATSA and WATSA, and serves as the SCC representative on the Washington State Sex Offender Policy Board.

Kerry McCarthy, M.A. Health Services Division Department of Corrections

Kerry has a master's degree in mental health counseling and behavioral medicine from Boston University School of Medicine. She received her bachelor's degree in psychology and criminology from Stonehill College. Her clinical experience includes working with at-risk adolescents and families and individuals in crisis, and providing individual therapy to adults with various psychopathology presentations, including substance abuse, severe mental illness, trauma and personality disorders. Currently, she is a sex offender treatment provider with the Department of Corrections, working with high-risk sex offenders using both group and individual therapy.

Jamey McGinty Detective Lewis County Sheriff's Office

Jamey began his career in law enforcement in 1999, when he was hired as a police officer for the city of Napavine. He was then hired by the Lewis County Sheriff's Office in 2005, where he worked as a patrol deputy in both the east and west ends of the county. In 2007, he was assigned to the detective bureau where he obtained specialized training in both sex crime investigations and crimes against children. During this time, he became a member and contact person for the Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force in Lewis County. In 2009, he was assigned to his current position as sex offender registration detective and sits on the End of Sentence Review Committee. Jamey implemented a local county review board that works with other law enforcement agencies, including local police departments, the Prosecutor's Office, the Department of Corrections and CPS. This committee was formed to share information and to discuss the dropping and rising levels of sex offenders who reside in Lewis County. Besides his duties under the Sex Offender Registration Program, he is a certified AFIS fingerprint examiner, FARO and member of the Officer Involved Shooting team, and still assists in major crimes.

Chris McLaughlin, M.S. Department of Social Health and Services

Chris has been working with youth for 20 years. His career started at Sundown M Ranch, as a CDP/ youth counselor in the intensive inpatient drug and alcohol treatment program. He worked with the Juvenile Rehabilitation Administration at the Parke Creek Community facility for 15 years in various roles: counselor, clinical director and supervisor. He is currently the Children's Administration Region 1 extended foster care and missing from care lead, co-lead of SAY in the region and BRS coordinator, located in Yakima. Just prior to his current roles, Chris was a social worker in the Ellensburg Children's Administration office. Chris earned bachelor's degrees in sociology and law and justice, followed by a Master of Science in the Family Studies Program at Central Washington University.

Corey McNally, M.S., LMHC Health Services Division Department of Corrections

Corey earned a B.A. in psychology and an M.S. in clinical psychology in 2007, both from Eastern Washington University. He began working at the Special Commitment Center in 2008 and remained there until 2015. While there, he served as a clinician and as a treatment team lead for the different treatment teams he participated in. He also revised the treatment assignments at the request of the clinical director and served on the Crisis Negotiations Team. For a brief time in 2014, he served as the double filled cognitive behavioral change administrator for the Department of Corrections, overseeing various cognitive behavioral interventions such as Thinking for a Change. In 2015, he became the clinical quality assurance and training manager for the Department of Corrections Sex Offender Treatment and Assessment Program. With SOTAP, he has researched and written the treatment program, and with the SOTAP leadership team, implemented it at the two prison sites. During this time, he became certified as a trainer in the Stable and Acute 2007 needs assessments and is working on becoming a certified trainer in the Static 99R 2016 coding rules. Finally, he is working on the establishment of SOTAP quality assurance activities to ensure program fidelity.

Kyle McNeal South Sound Child Exploitation Task Force, FBI

Kyle has been the coordinator for the FBI's South Sound Child Exploitation Task Force for the past five years. The task force investigates a wide variety of crimes involving the exploitation of children and adults. This includes sex trafficking, human trafficking, abductions, child pornography and sexual assaults that occur on reservations and military installations. The SSCETF has been involved in hundreds of cases since it was established in 2005. It is staffed by the FBI, Homeland Security investigations, Washington State Patrol's Missing and Exploited Children's Task Force, Lakewood Police Department and Tacoma Police Department. The task force has working relationships with numerous agencies in Pierce, Thurston, and Kitsap counties and is one of three FBI Child Exploitation Task Forces in Washington.

Brad Meryhew, J.D. Meryhew Law Group Member, Sex Offender Policy Board

Brad is a private criminal defense attorney whose practice focuses on representing in municipal, district and superior courts in Washington those accused of sexual misconduct. He is a 1994 graduate of the University of Puget Sound School of Law and began his career as a public defender. Brad has been a member of the Washington State Sex Offender Policy Board since its creation in 2008.

Jonathan Meyer, J.D. Lewis County Prosecuting Attorney

Jonathan is currently the Lewis County prosecutor. Prior to being elected in 2010, Jonathan was a partner in a private law firm in Centralia where he worked from 1996 until leaving to become prosecutor. Having handled thousands of cases, Jonathan has been involved in several notable cases, including a coroner's inquest featured on "48 Hours" and a cold case homicide case featured on "Ice Cold Killers," "Evil Kin" and "Cold Case Files." A graduate of Seattle University School of Law, St. Martin's University and Grays Harbor College,

Jonathan continued his education by completing the Reserve Police Academy and now serves as a reserve police officer for the city of Tenino. When not working with the Prosecutor's Office, Jonathan is active in his community. From coaching (high school football and softball) to serving on several boards and committees, Jonathan believes each person has an obligation to make the community a better place.

AMichael O'Connell, Ph.D. Washington Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers Member, Sex Offender Policy Board

Michael's introduction to social service work began in 1974, when he served as director of a Navy correctional center—the brig. He earned his master's from the University of Washington, intending to continue his career in correctional administration, but lost his way and ended up as a therapist doing inpatient substance abuse treatment. He began a private practice in 1980. In 1981, desperate for referrals, he began to work with sex offenders. Michael continues that work today. Along the way, he earned a doctorate in counseling psychology at the University of Washington, where he did research on using polygraph testing with sex offenders. He co-authored the book "Working with Sex Offenders," which outlines standards of practice for community-based treatment of sex offenders. Michael is a former president of the Washington Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers and a current member of its board. He is also its representative to the Washington State Sex Offender Policy Board.

James Olsen, J.D., Ph.D., LMHC, SOTP, CSAT-S

James owns and operates Pacific Behavioral Healthcare, a Bellevue clinic specializing in the treatment of problematic, compulsive and out-of-control sexual behaviors. He is regularly called on to conduct forensic evaluations for individuals charged with sexual offenses in state or federal court. James has published in respected peer-reviewed journals on a variety of critical topics such as domestic violence, family relationships and peer relationships. He serves on the board of directors for the Society for the Advancement of Sexual Health, where his responsibilities include chairing the committee responsible for all training and certification programs for problematic sexual behaviors.

Allan O'Neill
Detective
Kirkland Police Department

Allan is a detective and the registered sex offender coordinator with the Kirkland Police Department. He has been a police officer for 20 years: 4.5 years at the city of Arlington and the remainder for the city of Kirkland. Over his career, his assignments have included patrol, criminal investigations, school resource officer, neighborhood resource officer and field training officer. He has been in his current assignment since 2010 and is a member of the Internet Crimes Against Children's Task Force. Allan is a certified CVSA examiner and routinely uses the CVSA in internet sex crimes investigations. He also serves as the hostage negotiator team leader for the North Sound Metro SWAT/HNT team. Prior to becoming a police officer, he served four years in the Air Force as a security police officer and a corrections officer for the Kirkland Police Department. Allan has an associate degree in criminal justice from the Air Force Community College and a bachelor's degree in social sciences from Washington State University.

Tiffany Pate
Community Corrections Division
Department of Corrections

Tiffany is a community corrections officer with the Washington State Department of Corrections. Tiffany began working as a CCO in 2008, transferring to the Pierce County Special Assault Unit in 2012. She joined the Civil Commitment Unit in 2016. Her current duties include supervising sexually violent predators released from the Special Commitment Center on a less restrictive alternative in Pierce County. Prior to working for DOC, Tiffany was a behavioral intervention support specialist and case manager for at-risk and special needs youth in group home settings. Tiffany graduated from Washington State University with a degree in criminal justice with a double major in sociology.

Jeff Patnode
Member, Indeterminate
Sentence Review Board

Jeff has worked in the criminal justice system for nearly 24 years, specializing in the sexual offender population, evidence-based programs, sentencing alternatives and quality assurance development. Most recently, he served as the administrator for Juvenile Sex Offender Programs as well as the commissioner for the Interstate Compact for Juveniles. He has served as the vice chair for the Sex Offender Policy Board, chair of the End of Sentence Review Juvenile Subcommittee, chair of the Washington State Council on Interstate Compact for Juveniles and voting member of the ESRC and Sexually Violent Predator Subcommittee. He has worked with the sexual offender population in a variety of capacities, including direct service and program administration in both institutional and parole/community programs. Gov. Jay Inslee appointed Jeff to the ISRB in 2015.

Terrina Peterson
Washington Association of
Sheriffs and Police Chiefs

Terrina is the sex offender registration coordinator with the Washington Association of Sheriffs and Police Chiefs. She has more than 13 years of experience in Washington state sex offender registration and classification.

Jedd Pelander
Juvenile Rehabilitation
Department of Social Health and Services
Member, Sex Offender Policy
Board

Jedd has worked for the Department of Social and Health Services, Rehabilitation Administration since 2003. He oversees the Sex Offense Treatment and Aftercare Programs, represents Juvenile Rehabilitation on Corrections' End of Sentence Review Committee for risk-level classification and sexually violent predator reviews, chairs the ESRC Juvenile Subcommittee for juvenile risk level classification and is a member of Washington's Sex Offender Policy Board.

Stephanie Pitkin, M.A., LMHC
Health Services Division
Department of Corrections

Stephanie has been in state service for more than 10 years. She began her career working with a high-risk juvenile population in both group home and institutional settings in Pennsylvania during her undergraduate studies. She also worked with pregnant and parenting teens as a social worker with the Department of Health and Human Services. Stephanie began working at the Twin Rivers Unit as a sex offender treatment specialist in 2013. After a couple years, she transitioned to community-based SOTS position to return to institutionally focused treatment. Presently she is a quality assurance specialist for the Sex Offender and Treatment Program. She holds a B.A. in administration of justice from the University of Pittsburgh and a master's in counseling psychology from City University of Seattle. She is licensed as a LMHC in the state of Washington.

Ian Polhemus and Police Dog Bear Detective Seattle Police Department

Ian has been a member of the Seattle Police Department since 1992, serving his first 10 years in patrol, including six years as a field training officer. In 2002, Ian was reassigned to the Metropolitan Division where he served the next five years as a patrol canine handler with his partner, Police Dog Kaiser. In November 2007, Ian was assigned to the Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force where he was responsible for the investigation and follow-up of crimes relating to online child sexual exploitation. He has received certifications in basic data recovery and acquisition, intermediate data recovery and analysis, and has completed hundreds of hours in digital online and P2P investigations. In August 2015, and having had enough of child sexual exploitation cases, Ian returned to his K-9 roots and was selected to handle SPD's first electronic storage detection K-9. Following the investigation and subsequent arrest of Subway pitchman Jared Fogle with the assistance of a black Lab named Bear, Ian reached out to the trainer and initiated a plan to purchase Bear and bring him back to Seattle. Since September 2015, Ian and Bear have continued to support the ICACTF where they focus on assisting investigators in the recovery of digital evidence that might otherwise have gone undetected, but for the power of the nose!

Genell Price Yakima County Sheriff's Office

Genell has worked with the Yakima County Sheriff's Office for five years, primarily working in sex offender registration and coordination. Previously, Genell worked at the Yakima County Jail as a corrections officer for five years.

Peter Qualliotine Organization for Prostitution Survivors

Peter is co-founder of the Organization for Prostitution Survivors, a Seattle-based nonprofit dedicated to stopping the harm of commercial sexual exploitation. In 1995, he created one of the first intervention programs in the nation for buyers of commercial sex, in Portland, Oregon. In 2015, Peter launched Stopping Sexual Exploitation: a Program for Men, a 10-session prostitution-buyers intervention program used by municipalities in King County.

Megan Reese, Psy.D. Special Commitment Center

Megan is a licensed psychologist in the state of Washington. She received her doctorate in clinical psychology from Pacific University in Hillsboro, Oregon, in 2015. She has worked in the field of sex offender treatment for four years and has more than eight years of experience working with forensic populations. She is currently the special needs treatment team lead at the Special Commitment Center on McNeill Island where she oversees a team of psychology associates adapting treatment for individuals with developmental and cognitive disabilities. Megan has advanced training in trauma-focused cognitive behavioral therapy, forensic assessment, working with LGBTQI clients and supervision. She currently provides community and facility presentations on working with individuals with neurological and cognitive disorders. She has a vast research agenda which includes addressing clinician burnout in sex offender treatment providers. Previously, Megan dedicated herself to working with treatment providers and community law enforcement agencies to increase knowledge in reducing burnout and crisis intervention when working with difficult populations.

Valiant Richey, J.D. King County Prosecutor's Office

Valiant is a King County senior deputy prosecuting attorney. For the past eight years, he has worked in the Special Assault Unit, which handles cases involving the sexual abuse of children and adults and the physical abuse of children. Currently, Val is a senior trial attorney in the unit and is responsible for prosecuting cases involving sex traffickers and the purchase of children for sex. He is also one of two coordinators for the Ending Exploitation Collaborative, a multi-sector partnership in King County to end commercial sexual exploitation. Val has conducted numerous trainings and briefings on sex trafficking and exploitation for law enforcement, service providers, policy makers and the public. He also serves on the Washington State Commercially Sexually Exploited Children and Trafficking in Persons coordinating committees. He has a B.A. and an M.A. in political science from Boston University and a J.D. from the University of Washington.

Victoria Roberts

Victoria is retiring after 37 years of state service. During her tenure, she had the opportunity to work as staff to the Governor's Task Force on Community Protection in 1988 where she assisted in implementing the legislation that resulted from the task force recommendations, including the civil commitment of sexually violent predators, sex offender registration and sex offender notification. She played a lead role in instituting the end of sentence review process and establishing the state's system of law enforcement and community notification. Victoria served as DOC's community protection administrator and chaired the End of Sentence Review Committee from its inception in 1988 to 2005.

Kecia Rongen Chair, Indeterminate Sentence Review Board

Kecia has worked in the criminal justice system for 19 years, specializing in the sexual offender population. Before coming to the board, she served as the administrator for Sexual Offender Programs in the Juvenile Rehabilitation Administration. In addition, she has served on a number of legislative work groups related to sex offender management. She served as chair of the statewide Sex Offender Policy Board from 2010 to 2012. Gov. Jay Inslee appointed her chair in 2015, as well. Kecia is also a member of the Washington Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers.

Nikki Rymer, M.A. Special Commitment Center

Nikki received a master's degree in mental health counseling with a specialization in forensic psychology from Walden University in February 2011. Nikki began her career at the Special Commitment Center on McNeil Island as a psychology associate in March 2017. In this position, she provides individual and group therapy to civilly committed sexual violent predators. She has advanced knowledge of crisis management, high acuity individuals, intellectual disabilities/developmental disabilities, traumatic brain injuries, mental health disorders, individuals with general and sex offenses, instructing and higher-level learning counseling/advising. Previously, Nikki held a position as correctional mental health counselor for the Washington Corrections Center. In this position, she assisted in developing the Skill Builder Unit focused on individuals (offenders) with intellectual disabilities/developmental disabilities/traumatic brain injuries and other interfering mental health disorders to help them gain basic living skills and reduce recidivism. While in this position, she facilitated 11 groups a week, managed a caseload of 65, performed mental health assessments and crisis management, and attended weekly multidisciplinary meetings.

Ken Schafer, LMHC, CSOTP

Ken is a licensed mental health counselor and certified sex offense treatment provider. He has more than 20 years of experience working with juvenile and adult males and females in both community and correctional settings. He has been trained in dialectical behavior therapy and incorporates elements of DBT with youth and adults. He is a long-term member of ATSA and WATSA and is currently on the WATSA board of directors.

Renee Schuiteman, M.S.W. Health Services Division Department of Corrections

Renee is the program manager of Airway Heights Correction Center Sex Offender Treatment and Assessment Programs. This program provides prison-based treatment to approximately 175 clients per year. Treatment at this location has CORE group, specialty groups, Spanish speaking, activity track treatment and aftercare. Renee is a certified Static-99R, Stable and Acute 2007 trainer, having trained with Andrew J.R. Harris, Ph.D. She also serves on the Sexually Aggressive and Physically Aggressive Youth Committee with the Washington State Department of Social and Health Services.

Alina B. Shaw, Ph.D. Special Commitment Center

Alina is a licensed clinical psychologist. She started working in the field of sex offender treatment during her graduate training, when she co-facilitated men's and women's groups with Drs. Kenneth Lindsey and Cheri Atkins in their private practice in southeast Idaho. She has been working at the Special Commitment Center since June 2016, where she is a treatment team lead. Alina is interested in the interplay between research and practice in the area of sex offender treatment and evaluation, dedicated to following evidence-based approaches and eager to contribute to the betterment of the field.

Kristine Skipworth Department of Corrections

Kristine is a 1990 graduate of Gonzaga University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in criminal justice. Upon graduation, she obtained employment with Echo Glen Children's Center and was one of two female juvenile security guards working in a maximum security unit. In 1993, she was hired by the Department of Corrections where she began her career as a community corrections officer 2 in the Burien Field Office. She worked in partnership with local law enforcement and was integral in the establishment of SMART partnerships with various King County sheriffs agencies. She was later promoted to a CCO3 and was invited to participate in a legislative work group to write critical review of draft legislation and feedback as to content and effect of the proposed Drug Offender Sentence Alternative legislation prior to it becoming a law. At the conclusion of this committee, she was offered a position of legislative program manager with the department's chemical dependency unit and was responsible for establishing policy and managing and implementing DOSA legislation for the department. She has held various community corrections supervisor positions, including in work release and field units in King and Pierce counties. Kristine is currently the Section 4 field administrator in DOC's Community Corrections Division for Pierce County, overseeing 12 units, one work crew and the Western Region Transport Team, for a total of 143 staff.

Franklyn Smith
Resource program manager
Reentry Division
Department of Corrections

In his current role as resource program manager, Franklyn works closely with corrections counselors, workforce development specialists, education/employment navigators, facility-based health and treatment providers, community corrections officers, local jail release planners, jail liaisons, courts and other criminal justice agencies. He assesses and maintains the availability of community resources to support reentry needs that may include mental and physical health, chemical dependency, employment/education/training, housing, entitlements funding, transportation and other needs as identified in the individual release plan. Prior to his employment with the DOC, Franklyn built a network of direct and essential need providers to assist with serving the needs of individuals releasing from prison or jail and returning to the community. His background includes community resources management, peer counseling and mentoring, case management and workforce development over a period of 12 years. He has also served in organizations such as the Freedom Project, RAZ Community Services and Unity in Faith Ministries, and was the co-founder of Sober Solutions, Transitional Housing Services LLC. Franklyn has been recognized by other community leaders for his work in developing homeless outreach activities, community support groups and professional peer-based mentoring programs.

Kimberly Stavrum, M.S.
Special Commitment Center

Kimberly received her master's degree in forensic behavioral analysis from Florida Gulf University in Fort Myers, Florida, in 2015. Kimberly has been working in the field of sex offender specific treatment for the past eight months as a psychology associate at the Special Commitment Center on McNeil Island where she provides group and individual treatment sessions to residents civilly committed as sexually violent predators. She has advanced training in dialectical behavioral therapy, sexual predator analysis and identification, forensic assessment and personality disorders. Previously, Kimberly held positions providing drug and alcohol treatment in county jails and residential facilities in Florida and dialectical behavioral therapy groups at Oregon State Penitentiary. Most recently, she served as the crisis and forensic assessment supervisor in Clatsop County, Oregon, where she and her team were responsible for civil commitment investigations, evaluations to determine the capability for community restoration in the forensic population, crisis intervention training for local law enforcement agencies and providing crisis interventions and support to local emergency departments.

Elsbeth Stebbins
Health Services Division
Department of Corrections

Elsbeth has worked with the sex offender population for 12 years and has been with the Department of Corrections Sex Offender Treatment and Assessment Program since 2013. She is currently a sex offender treatment supervisor at the Monroe Correctional Complex SOTAP site and has facilitated its Healthy Sexuality and Relationship Skills Adjunct Groups. These are supplemental groups for clients with identified need in associated dynamic risk domains (based upon the Stable 2007 Dynamic Risk Assessment).

Darby Stewart M.S.W., LICSW
Victims Services Program
Department of Corrections

Darby began her work in victim services in 1990 while studying for a Master in Social Work. As a graduate student at Eastern Washington University, she participated in the development of the curriculum for the campus Acquaintance/Date Rape Awareness Program. In 1991, she joined Lutheran Community Services' Spokane Sexual Assault Center as a trauma therapist for sexually abused children and adult survivors of childhood sexual abuse and sexual assault. She also provided outreach and sexual assault prevention education to the Spokane community during her years as a trauma therapist. Darby accepted the position of director of the Spokane Sexual Assault Center in 1997 which she held until September 2002 when she left to join the Department of Corrections Victim Services Program's newly implemented Community Victim Liaison Program. For nearly 16 years, Darby has provided corrections-based victim advocacy services to survivors of crime in 11 counties in Eastern Washington. She was a member of the Office of Crime Victims Advocacy's Sexual Assault Services Committee from 1999 to 2002 and served on the committee's Anti-

Oppression Subcommittee. Darby also served on the Washington Coalition of Sexual Assault Programs' board of directors, the Spokane Regional Domestic Violence Team's policy board and the Spokane County sex offender management team. She currently serves on the Spokane County Domestic Violence Coalition, the Sexual Assault and Family Trauma Response Center's Community Advisory Board and as a member of the multidisciplinary Adult Victims of Sexual Assault Committee in Spokane.

Minna Swartz, LICSW
Health Services Division
Department of Corrections

Minna is a native Western Washingtonian who has been working in social services for the past 14 years, 10 of them in leadership capacities. She has practiced in Georgia, Tennessee, Kentucky and Washington, and served a myriad of client populations, including servicemembers, military families, veterans, young mothers, low-income families, juvenile offenders and mentally ill offenders. Before coming to the Department of Corrections, she served as a social work supervisor at Western State Hospital in the Center for Forensic Services with offenders found not guilty by reason of insanity. Minna's professional development has consistently centered on instituting effective change. She has developed comprehensive relapse prevention curricula, served as a Risk Review Board member and supervised many direct reports. Since coming to DOC, Minna has worked to enhance the community portion of SOTAP using evidence-based practices. She received her Master of Social Work from Austin Peay State University in Clarksville, Tennessee, and is a licensed independent clinical social worker in Washington.

Katrina Tangedahl, M.S.W.
Children's Administration
Department of Social Health and Services

Katrina has more than 20 years of experience working with youth and families involved with the criminal justice and child welfare systems throughout Washington, starting as a corrections counselor at an adult work release facility in 1997 and then becoming a juvenile parole counselor with the Juvenile Justice and Rehabilitation Administration in 1998. In 2001, Katrina moved to the Children's Administration where she worked with youth and families as a social worker in Child Protective Services, Family Voluntary Services and Child and Family Welfare Services units. As a social worker, Katrina has been responsible for investigating cases of child abuse and neglect, conducting risk assessments/safety assessments, monitoring/referring families to appropriate services and case management. In her current capacity as a social and health program consultant with Children's Administration in Spokane, Katrina is responsible for coordinating Behavior Rehabilitation Services. She also co-chairs the Sexually Aggressive Youth/Physically Aggressive Youth Committee in Children's Administration Region 1. Katrina acts as a regional liaison for the Juvenile Justice Rehabilitation Administration as well as for the Division of Disabilities Administration. She earned a bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Eastern Washington University in 1996 and a master's in social worker degree from Eastern Washington University in 1998.

Randy van Zandt
Community Corrections Division
Department of Corrections

Randy has worked for the Washington State Department of Corrections for 17 years both as a community corrections officer and community corrections supervisor. He currently supervises two specialized units, each of which covers all of King County: the Special Assault Unit and the Special Needs

Unit. The SAU supervises all Level 3 sex offenders residing in King County. The SNU supervises mentally ill offenders, including state-designated dangerous mentally ill offenders and those found not guilty by reason of insanity.

For 10 years prior to working at DOC, Randy worked at a community psychiatric clinic in downtown Seattle doing case management and day treatment for mentally ill adults.

Lisa Wahl, M.S.N.
Providence Sexual Assault and Child Maltreatment Center

Lisa received her M.S.N. from the University of Alaska, and is a family nurse practitioner. For 10 years, she has provided care at Providence Sexual Assault and Child Maltreatment Center. Her current role includes clinical evaluations, community education and awareness, and general medical management. SANE-certified, adolescence through adulthood, and specializing in child abuse, Lisa has significant experience as an expert witness in court. She has been a Darkness to Light Stewards of Children facilitator for nine years. She co-chaired the Thurston County Domestic Violence/Sexual Assault Task Force for four years, is an active participant in the Washington SANE guidelines updates and trains victim advocates, medical personnel, educators and the public, from local to international audiences, about the long-term impact of trauma, toxic stress and adverse childhood experiences. Lisa is a member of the International Association of Forensic Nurses.

Brittany West, M.A.
Health Services Division
Department of Corrections

Brittany has worked to successfully reinstate the SOTAP program at the Special Offender Unit in Monroe and has been running two consecutive treatment groups for more than 21 months. Her caseload includes individuals with severe mental illness as well as intellectual/developmental disabilities. Prior to working exclusively with the sex offender population, she was a mental health counselor at the same facility, working with maximum custody offenders. Before working with DOC, she provided sex offender and mental health treatment in a private practice setting. She holds a master's in clinical psychology and a certificate in criminal profiling.

Jennifer Williams Department of Corrections

Jennifer is a program specialist 5 with the Washington State Department of Corrections Civil Commitment Program. She started working with DOC in 1999 and transferred to the Community Protection Unit in 2004 and helped to establish the DOC civil commitment program for sexually violent predators in 2012. Her current duties include assisting with all pre-commitment discovery, filing and preparations before individuals are released from DOC confinement, tracking and monitoring tolling of DOC supervision while the resident is housed at the SCC, preparing the records for LRA investigations and assisting with LRA cases as they transition to the community.

Hilary Williams Community Corrections Division Department of Corrections

Hilary has served the citizens of Washington for the past 21 years, of which the past nine have been for the Department of Corrections. Hilary scores the Static 99R on offenders whose effect may have an impact on contact standards while offenders are in the community. He has an associate degree in criminal justice and a bachelor's degree with an emphasis in public administration from The Evergreen State College, Tacoma campus. He began his state service at Maple Lane School in the Juvenile Rehabilitation Administration as a security officer and later as a counselor in 1996. In 2009, he started with DOC as a community corrections officer 2 in Tacoma, working with sex offenders and other offenders monitored on global positioning satellite. He became a firearms instructor in 2012. Hilary serves on the board of directors for the Washington State Law Enforcement Firearms Instructors Association as the Western Washington representative. Hilary later transferred to the Olympia Main and Thurston County units where he supervised a mixed caseload including Drug Offender Sentencing Alternative and Special Sex Offender Sentencing Alternative offenders. He routinely assists the DOC Transportation and Extradition Unit and instructs annual in-service emergency management. He routinely volunteers and been recommended to serve on committees to suggest future directions.

Sara Windsheimer, M.A., MFT Reentry Division Department of Corrections

Sara has a master's degree in marriage and family therapy from George Fox University. She joined the Washington State Department of Corrections Sex Offender Treatment and Assessment Program in 2014, where she spent three years as a treatment specialist and a supervisor. In September 2017, Sara transitioned to the DOC Cognitive Behavioral Change Unit as the correctional program manager for the east region prisons. Before joining DOC, she spent nine years providing community-based treatment for domestic violence offenders. She then spent three years developing and managing a program to protect domestic violence survivors and their children from post-separation abuse during court-ordered child visitation. Collaboration with domestic violence and sexual assault survivor services as well as extended community partners has been an essential part of her work. Sara has a passion for trauma-informed care. She has sought training, been trained to train and has used trauma-informed care/practices in all her roles in working with offenders and survivors of violence.

Dominic Winter Department of Corrections

Dominic has been a community corrections officer with the Washington State Department of Corrections since 2008. He is currently with the Civil Commitment Program supervising sexually violent predators released from the Special Commitment Center on McNeil Island. Prior to this, he worked in the Special Needs Unit managing severely mentally ill offenders. Since joining the Civil Commitment Program, Dominic has supervised more than 20 SVPs in Lewis, Thurston, Pierce and Spokane counties. Prior to working for the Department of Corrections, Dominic worked as a residential rehabilitation counselor at the Greater Lakes Mental Health Recovery Center in Spanaway and at the Lifeline Connections inpatient chemical dependency treatment facility in Vancouver. Dominic earned his B.A. in psychology from Western Washington University with a focus on experimental psychology and statistics in 2005. After graduation, he volunteered as a teaching assistant at the Remann Hall Day Reporting School in Tacoma teaching U.S. history and civics.

Fred Wist, J.D. Assistant Attorney General

Fred graduated from Oregon State University with a degree in speech communications and received a J.D. from the University of Puget Sound. He began employment in the Pierce County Prosecutor's Office in 1992, working initially in district court, developing and heading the office's first Domestic Violence Unit that brought together prosecutors, advocates, law enforcement and the Superior Court Clerk's Office under one central location. Fred worked rotations through SAU, juvenile, robbery/assault, homicide and civil, as well as served as the Juvenile Division chief for eight years. Fred joined the AGO SVP Unit in 2013 and currently serves as a team lead supervisor.

SESSIONS/ MAY 8

BREAKOUT A

May 8 | 1–1:50 p.m.

- Registered sex offender coordinator 101: Part 1
- Commercial sexual exploitation: Part 1
- DOC's Sex Offender Treatment and Assessment Program: Part 1
- From treatment to transition: Part 1
- Understanding risk for sex offenders
- Juvenile registration 101
- Q&A with Patty Wetterling

Registered sex offender coordinator 101: Part 1

Presenters: Dallas Dusek and Tina Keller

PLEASE NOTE: THIS IS A CLOSED SESSION AND IS INTENDED FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT ONLY

This course is designed for new RSO coordinators. It will provide general instruction on tracking offenders through the release process, sex offender registration, records management, developing and using resources to gain file material for risk level assessments, and tracking tips from citizens and law enforcement agencies to research possible failure-to-register cases. There will be an outline on relief of duty to register and what that entails. A general overview of Offender Watch will be provided.

Commercial sexual exploitation: Part 1

Presenters: Valiant Richey, J.D.; Peter Qualliotine; James Olsen, Ph.D., J.D.

PLEASE NOTE: THIS IS A CLOSED SESSION AND IS INTENDED FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT ONLY

This session will explore crimes related to commercial sexual exploitation, including how to work with and manage those convicted of this type of offense and what forms of treatment may be available.

DOC's Sex Offender Treatment and Assessment Program: Part 1

Presenters: Corey McNally, M.S., LMHC and Faith Golden, Ph.D., LMHC

The Washington State Department of Corrections' Sex Offender Treatment and Assessment Program has undergone significant changes over the past four years to better adhere to ATSA best practices, uphold its classification as an evidence-based practice by the Washington State Institute of Public Policy and adhere to the Risk Need Responsivity Model. Significant revisions include prioritizing clients based on validated risk assessments, a complete overhaul of programming offered based on available research, targeting criminogenic needs of the clients based on validated assessments and operations that support the stability and maintenance of the treatment model. This session will provide a summary of the overhaul process, the newly implemented treatment program and directions for the future.

CC From treatment to transition: Part 1

Presenters: Elena Lopez Psy.D. and Dominic Winter

Under RCW 71.09, residents committed and/ or detained as sexually violent predators are provided treatment at the Special Commitment Center with the overarching goal of helping each individual learn to manage his/her risk and work toward a safe community transition. This two-part presentation will focus on an overview of SCC treatment program components and the eventual transition to a less restrictive alternative and community supervision.

Part one will provide a high-level overview of the treatment and the program structure as well as considerations for community corrections officers in working with individuals who have sex offenses and with treatment teams. It will also provide some takeaways and considerations for providing more continuity in the transition to community and supervision.

Part two will consist of an overview of a release and interactive discussion on supervision of the SCC residents on LRA. Insights, challenges and successes will be shared, with opportunities provided to ask questions. Additionally, the importance of the treatment team and review of progress will be highlighted.

VS Understanding risk for sex offenders

Presenters: Renee Schuiteman, M.S.W.; Jacob Bezanson, Hilary Williams

This training provides information on how DOC uses the Static-99R, Stable and Acute 2007 tool for clients in sex offender treatment and on the End of Sentence Review Committee's leveling system/protocol, including mitigating and aggravating levels. In addition, it will look at how the assessment tools are used to drive contact and supervision standards and strategies upon release.

J Juvenile registration 101

Presenter: Jedd Pelander

Session participants will be provided an overview of registration requirements for juveniles with a registerable sex offense in Washington state. This session provides information on who is required to register, length of registration, failing to register, relief from registration, sealing records for juveniles adjudicated of a sex offense and community notification. It will also explore the collateral consequences of juvenile registration and community notification.

ALL Q&A with Patty Wetterling

This session is an opportunity for conference attendees to speak with Patty and ask her questions in an open-session environment.

ALL All interested

J Juveniles

LEO Law enforcement only

T Tribal members

CC Community Corrections

LE Law enforcement

TP Treatment providers

VS Victims services

BREAKOUT B

May 8 | 2–2:50 p.m.

- Registered sex offender coordinator 101: Part 2
- Commercial sexual exploitation: Part 2
- Department of Corrections' Sex Offender Treatment and Assessment Program: Part 2
- Treating sexual offenders who have intellectual/developmental disabilities
- Prosecuting failure to register cases
- From treatment to transition: Part 2
- Juvenile supervision and Special Sex Offender Disposition Alternative program

Registered sex offender coordinator 101: Part 2

Presenters: Dallas Dusek and Tina Keller

PLEASE NOTE: THIS IS A CLOSED SESSION AND IS INTENDED FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT ONLY

This course is designed for new RSO coordinators. It will provide general instruction on tracking offenders through the release process, sex offender registration, records management, developing and using resources to gain file material for risk level assessments, and tracking tips from citizens and law enforcement agencies to research possible failure-to-register cases. There will be an outline on relief of duty to register and what that entails. A general overview of Offender Watch will be provided.

Commercial sexual exploitation: Part 2

Presenter: Valiant Richey, J.D.

PLEASE NOTE: THIS IS A CLOSED SESSION AND IS INTENDED FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT ONLY

This session will explore crimes related to commercial sexual exploitation, including how to work with and manage those convicted of this type of offense and what forms of treatment may be available.

Department of Corrections' Sex Offender Treatment and Assessment Program: Part 2

Presenters: Corey McNally, MS, LMHC; Faith Golden, Ph.D., LMHC; Minna Swartz

This is an opportunity for interested attendees to ask questions of various SOTAP members.

Treating sexual offenders who have intellectual/developmental disabilities

Presenters: Christine Gomes, Psy.D.; Brittany West, M.A.; Steve Donovan, M.Ed.; Amanda Fenrich, M.A.

This session will include a brief review of the available literature on sex offender treatment approaches for individuals who have intellectual/developmental disabilities. In addition, the presenters will share treatment activities designed for use with this population in SOTAPs.

Prosecuting failure to register cases

Presenter: John Cummings, J.D.

Pierce County Deputy Prosecuting Attorney John Cummings will discuss best practices for investigating and prosecuting the crime of failure to register as a sex offender from a prosecutor's perspective.

From treatment to transition: Part 2

Presenters: Elena Lopez, Psy.D. and Dominic Winter

Under RCW 71.09, residents committed and/or detained as sexually violent predators are provided treatment at the Special Commitment Center with the overarching goal of helping each individual learn to manage his/her risk and work toward a safe community transition. This two-part presentation will focus on an overview of SCC treatment program components and the eventual transition to a less restrictive alternative and community supervision.

Part 1 will provide a high-level overview of the treatment and the program structure as well as considerations for community corrections officers in working with individuals who have sex offenses and with treatment teams. It will also provide some takeaways and considerations for providing more continuity in the transition to community and supervision.

Part 2 will consist of an overview of a release and interactive discussion on supervision of the SCC residents on LRA. Insights, challenges and successes will be shared, with opportunities provided to ask questions. Additionally, the importance of the treatment team and review of progress will be highlighted.

Juvenile supervision and Special Sex Offender Disposition Alternative program

Presenter: Don Loen

This session offers a comprehensive discussion of court supervision of juvenile sex offenders, with a focus on the SSODA. The presenter hopes to elicit discussion over a best-practices approach with the idea that not all practices are practical for all courts. Participants will be provided with an overview of the SSODA program in Yakima County and a brief discussion of supervision of non-SSODA juvenile sex offenders.

The presenter will also discuss the SSODA evaluation process and how a youth would be selected for the SSODA program. The discussion will progress into building a support team, leveling, polygraph examinations, visitation, court reviews, other court interventions and the processes post-supervision.

All interested

Juveniles

Law enforcement only

Tribal members

Community Corrections

Law enforcement

Treatment providers

Victims services

BREAKOUT C

May 8 | 3–3:50 p.m.

- Sex offender supervision in the Digital Age
- Best practices in supervision with early career treatment providers
- Legislative updates
- Children's Administration overview: Sexually Aggressive Youth and Physically Aggressive/Assaultive Youth programs
- End of Sentence Review Committee 101

CC LE Sex offender supervision in the Digital Age

Presenter: Matthew McDaniel

A crash course for the technically challenged: Individuals who are tasked with supervision of sex offenders in today's tech-embedded society face a daunting task. Except in exceptional circumstances, it is often not possible to simply ban a sex offender from accessing computers, smart devices or the internet. The reality is that sex offender supervision will increase in complexity as society becomes even more intertwined with the internet, and as phones and other devices become more complex. Supervision is an arduous process, and often the most difficult and time-consuming period is at the onset of the supervision. During this session, we will explore ways to restrict and control smart phone access (on Android and iOS operating systems), provide tips on conducting inspections of smart devices and review some of the popular apps and social networking pitfalls encountered during the supervision of sex offenders.

TP Best practices in supervision with early career treatment providers

Presenters: John Gruenewald, Ph.D. and Megan Reese, Psy.D.

According to the American Psychological Association, supervisors are the gatekeepers to professional psychology, which includes assessing career suitability and working to ensure community and client safety. This presentation will address clinical supervision with early career sex offender treatment providers using a strengths-based approach, which includes formative and summative evaluations as they relate to supervisory outcomes and supervisee career development. Facilitators will address issues related to best practices within the context of legal, ethical and regulatory considerations. Discussion will explore salient issues early career treatment providers experience in developing a professional identity, including increasing supervisee knowledge specifically related to sex offender treatment. Topics addressed will include goal setting in supervision, documentation, monitoring of client/therapist relationships, supervisor traits related to successful outcomes and obstacles to effective supervision.

LP VS Legislative updates

Presenter: John Cummings, J.D.

Pierce County Deputy Prosecuting Attorney John Cummings will review the relevant changes in the law made during the 2018 legislative session as well as by the courts during the past year.

J Children's Administration overview: Sexually Aggressive Youth and Physically Aggressive/Assaultive Youth programs

Presenters: Joshua Koutecky; Katrina Tangedahl, M.S.W.; Chris McLaughlin, M.S.

Please join staff from the Children's Administration as we discuss the Sexually Aggressive Youth and the Physically Aggressive/Assaultive Youth programs that Children's Administration manages. The Children's Administration often receives requests for supports like these as we engage with families in your communities, so this conversation will focus on the statutory authority, process/procedure for accessing these funding sources, quality assurance and committee process, as well as best practices related to these resources. Unlike most resources that Children's Administration manages, youth do NOT have to be dependent to access Sexually Aggressive Youth services/supports, so please join us to learn more. Bring your questions and case examples, and we will gladly discuss further with you!

End of Sentence Review Committee 101

Presenters: Jacob Bezanson, Jedd Pelander, Victoria Roberts

How did we get here and what are we doing now? The ESRC is required to review individuals, recommend sex offender notification levels and make appropriate referrals, including sexually violent predator referrals, for individuals preparing for release from state prisons, mental hospitals or juvenile rehabilitation facilities. This session will provide information about the formation of the ESRC as well as information on the committee's practices and procedures. Following the presentation, a panel discussion will convene. It will include the original chair of the ESRC, a law enforcement ESRC representative, the current chair of the juvenile ESRC subcommittee and the current ESRC chair.

All interested

Juveniles

Law enforcement only

Tribal members

Community Corrections

Law enforcement

Treatment providers

Victims services

BREAKOUT D

May 8 | 4–4:50 p.m.

- Face-to-face registered sex offender contacts
- Skill building in sex offender treatment
- Cases involving familial victims
- Reentry 101: Supporting successful transition by offering reentry pathways
- State sex offender public website and additional victim notification resources
- Treating youth with sexual behavioral issues in the community
- Q&A with the End of Sentence Review Committee

Face-to-face registered sex offender contacts

Presenter: Allan O'Neill

PLEASE NOTE: THIS IS A CLOSED SESSION AND IS INTENDED FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT ONLY

An essential role of the RSO coordinator is conducting RSO address verification checks. The most effective method to conduct these checks is face-to-face contacts. Face-to-face address verification checks are also required by agencies participating in the RSO Address Residency Verification Program. This presentation provides a comprehensive overview on conducting effective face-to-face contacts with RSOs, how to prepare for face-to-face verification checks, what to look for while conducting the face-to-face contacts, communication and the importance of gaining rapport with the RSO.

Skill building in sex offender treatment

Presenters: Alina Shaw, Ph.D. and Megan Reese, Psy.D.

The fundamental goals of treating sex offenders are to reduce recidivism, ensure successful community reintegration and protect the community at large. These apply not only to a civilly committed population, but also to sex offenders receiving treatment in the community. Historically, insight-based approaches to treatment that emphasize an understanding of one's developmental history, offense cycle and triggers have been used. These approaches are useful for establishing a foundation for treatment, but can have limited effectiveness when not accompanied by complementary skill building. When interacting with individuals with significant antisocial personality traits, high psychopathy or cognitive impairment, for example, it becomes apparent that skill building aimed at replacing maladaptive behaviors is a crucial component of treatment. As a result, incorporating skill building into our treatment approaches is not only dictated by our commitment to a cognitive-behavioral foundation, but an essential way in which we prepare individuals for being successful. This presentation provides an overview of skill-building approaches that can be used in treating sex offenders. Strategies that work for individuals who have normal intellectual functioning will be discussed, as well as those that are best suited for a special needs population.

Cases involving familial victims

Presenters: Rebecca Kedigh, M.A. and Mallorie Hardesty, M.A.

This presentation will focus on discussing the impact familial offending has on both offenders and family members. Presenters will discuss implications associated with familial victims, such as barriers to reporting and loss of support, as well as recidivism risk.

Reentry 101: Supporting successful transition by offering reentry pathways

Presenters: Danielle Armbruster, Jim Harms, Franklyn Smith

Ninety-six percent of the incarcerated population will release to the community. Individuals with a criminal history may face insurmountable barriers. Without help and hope to break down these barriers, some will fall back into the very lifestyle which contributed to their criminal behavior in the first place. The key to creating safer communities is by breaking that cycle. The information presented in this session will include a discussion related to supporting successful transition using a continuum of care model.

Although the "ideal" step-by-step structure or continuum of care approach may be difficult to execute, the idea that reentry should consist of pre- and post-release support and supervision is a common goal for the Washington State Department of Corrections Reentry Division and is becoming more common in other states. To achieve and support successful transition, this presentation will show how wraparound programs and services appear to work better because they connect in-prison and post-prison interventions starting early in the individual's incarceration and continuing throughout incarceration and continuing through the supervision period.

VS State sex offender public website and additional victim notification resources

Presenters: Terrina Peterson and Steven Briggs

This session is intended to provide an overview of how to use the Washington state sex offender public website, VINE and VINE PO resources.

J Treating youth with sexual behavioral issues in the community

Presenter: Ken Schafer, LMHC, CSOTP

Youth with sexual behavioral issues are referred for therapy/treatment in the community for a multitude of reason and in several different ways based on their age and legal situations/adjudications. In this presentation, the following issues and topics will be addressed:

The differences and similarities of working with:

- Youth from a sexually aggressive youth DSHS referral
- Youth who have been granted a Special Sex Offense Disposition Alternative
- Youth who are referred by JRA post release and/or less-restrictive community-based facility

ALL Q&A with the End of Sentence Review Committee

Presenters: Jacob Bezanson, Jedd Pelander, GayLynn Jackson, Victoria Roberts

This is an opportunity for interested attendees to ask questions of ESRC members.

ALL All interested

J Juveniles

LEO Law enforcement only

T Tribal members

CC Community Corrections

LE Law enforcement

TP Treatment providers

VS Victims services

SESSIONS/ MAY 9

BREAKOUT E

May 9 | 11–11:50 a.m.

- U.S. Marshals Service
- Exiled in America: Sex Offender Reentry and Housing Policy
- Child sex trafficking
- Female sex offenders: Who are they and why do we treat them?

LE U.S. Marshals Service

Presenter: Bill Downey

This session will cover these topics: the traditional role of the U.S. Marshals Service; congressional directive to enforce the Adam Walsh Act; federal prosecution of sex offenders for failing to register; federally convicted sex offenders who fail to update registration; locally convicted sex offenders who travel and fail to register; tribal and international boundaries; international Meagan's Law; and Marshals Service fugitive task forces and operations and funding.

CC LP VS Exiled in America: Sex Offender Reentry and Housing Policy

Presenter: Christopher P. Dum, Ph.D.

In this session, Kent State University sociologist Christopher P. Dum examines sex offender reentry and housing policy from two complementary perspectives. First, he presents the findings from his book "Exiled in America: Life on the Margins in a Residential Motel" to paint a vivid picture of what reentry housing looks like for sex offenders who lack stable housing. This research is based on a year spent renting a room at a residential motel used to house homeless individuals. Second, he extends this ethnographic research by presenting findings from a national survey on public attitudes on sex offender housing policy. Specifically, he presents two studies that examine citizens' support for housing policies that would assist sex offenders in the community. These studies shed light on how policymakers might appeal to particular constituents when creating policy and what groups of citizens may be particularly resistant to policies that assist sex offenders in the community.

J LE Child sex trafficking

Presenter: Kyle McNeal

This session will provide an overview of the efforts now in place by the FBI to address child sex trafficking and have a focus on Washington state. It will cover these topics: task force overview, sex trafficking (definition, objectives), the game (grooming process), indicators, venues for sex trafficking and victim services.

TP Female sex offenders: Who are they and why do we treat them?

Presenters: Cathi Harris, M.A.; Dana Hufford, M.S.W.; Stephanie Pitkin, M.A., LMHC

Historically, lack of attention to female sexual offenders has led to less knowledge about them as compared to their male counterparts. This session will provide an overview of females who commit sexual offenses, including current beliefs, societal views and myths. We will also discuss offender and offense characteristics, pointing out the differences between male and females, available recidivism data and treatment targets.

ALL All interested

CC Community Corrections

J Juveniles

LE Law enforcement

LEO Law enforcement only

TP Treatment providers

T Tribal members

VS Victims services

BREAKOUT F

May 9 | 1–1:50 p.m.

- Integration of electronic storage detection K-9 in your case
- Human trafficking
- Assisting those with intellectual disability increase their response to treatment
- Sex offender treatment in the community
- Working with, rather than against denial: Part 1
- What could the role of an advocate look like?
- Q&A with the author of “Exiled in America: Life on the Margins in a Residential Motel”

J LE Integration of electronic storage detection K-9 in your case

Presenters: Detective Ian Polhemus and police dog Bear

K-9s have been used for security and hunting since the days of the Romans and specifically in law enforcement for more than 100 years. This workshop will introduce attendees to the latest in detection dog work – the Electronic Storage Detection K-9. The background of the program, its implementation, how to integrate a team in both your ICAC investigations as well as others, and deployment options will be discussed. Additional concepts such as including the use of a team for de-escalation purposes as well as how an ESD team can be used to assist in obtaining a child victim disclosure during the execution of your search warrant will also be discussed.

LE Human trafficking

Presenter: Capt. Michael Edwards

Washington state is unique in its proximity to other states and Canada, the federal highway system that allows quick access both north and south as well as east to the rest of the nation, a major seaport, highly sought-after tourist destinations and more. Because of all this, Washington is a top location for human trafficking, and not just labor trafficking but sex trafficking, too. The efforts to interdict these crimes leverages technology in ever-expanding ways, shedding light on the problem and offering ways out for the victims.

TP Assisting those with intellectual disability increase their response to treatment

Presenters: Mary-Catherine Kenny, M.S., Ed.S.; Nikki Rymer, M.A.; Rachel DeLateur, M.S., LMHC, GMHS

The risk-need-responsivity model will be used and reviewed in the context of individuals with intellectual disabilities and how providers can increase their response to sex offender specific treatment. This presentation will highlight the unique challenges in this population that contribute to their individual needs and lower their responsivity to treatment. Discussion on support, adaptations and monitoring will be reviewed to provide suggestions for improving the likelihood of treatment success using a functional assessment model. Facilitators will use a collaborative communication model to increase continuity of care. Participants will have an opportunity to practice the concepts presented.

LP Sex offender treatment in the community

Presenters: Minna Swartz, LICSW and Sharese Jones, M.A.

Washington is one of a handful of states that provide sex offender treatment in the community after incarceration. This presentation will provide a review of DOC’s Sex Offender Treatment and Assessment Program’s community portion of treatment, and how the skills and interventions learned in institutional treatment are translated and used in the community.

Working with, rather than against denial: Part 1

Presenter: Brent Borg, M.S.W.

Approximately one-third of sex offenders categorically deny their offense; another one-third deny some aspect of the crime. As accepting responsibility for an offense is typically an expectation of treatment, many individuals are therefore not treated. This session will look at the complex nature of denial and how it plays out in sex offender treatment. We will also focus on Moving Forward, a treatment program for adjudicated sex offenders who categorically deny their offense.

What could the role of an advocate look like?

Panelists: Maddie Graves-Wilson; Sheila Lewallen, M.A., LMHC; Darby Stewart, M.S.W., LICSW

The role played by a victims' advocate changes not only within a jurisdiction, but on a day-to-day basis. This session comprises four panelists who serve as advocates in different ways and in different jurisdictions. Over the course of the session, each will talk more about what their role looks like in their community and what the role of an advocate could look like in yours.

Q&A with the author of "Exiled in America: Life on the Margins in a Residential Motel"

Panelist: Christopher P. Dum, Ph.D.

This is an opportunity for interested attendees to ask questions of the author of "Exiled in America: Life on the Margins in a Residential Motel."

 All interested

 Juveniles

 Law enforcement only

 Tribal members

 Community Corrections

 Law enforcement

 Treatment providers

 Victims services

BREAKOUT G

May 9 | 2–2:50 p.m.

- When sex offenders roar
- Internet Crimes against Children Task Force overview
- “It’s not denial if it isn’t true”: Working with sex offenders in pre-contemplation
- Rape culture: What is it and what can we do about it?
- Working with, instead of against, denial: Part 2
- Tribal nation networking

LE When sex offenders roar

Presenter: Fred Wist, J.D.

This session will offer a definition of a recent overt act as it applies to sex offenders residing in the community, the important role of law enforcement in the identification and reporting of this behavior, and the role of the Department of Corrections, the Attorney General’s Office and the King County Prosecutor’s Office.

J LE Internet Crimes against Children Task Force overview

Presenter: Capt. Michael Edwards

The internet is accessible anywhere there is a hardline, Wi-Fi or cellular connection. Washington has historically led the nation in infrastructure development that brings internet access to all areas of the state. As a result, the efforts of the Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force touch almost every community in our state. Unfortunately, the numbers of cases in Washington rival or exceed those of other states. These crimes range from the production and distribution of child pornography to sextortion and online enticement, resulting in the sexual exploitation of children. The predators involved in these crimes are very sophisticated and technologically savvy as they take advantage of technology advancements for appalling uses. This session provides an overview of the ICAC Task Force’s work and role in eliminating internet crimes against children in Washington.

TP “It’s not denial if it isn’t true”: Working with sex offenders in pre-contemplation

Presenters: Joseph Bigelow, Psy.D. and Kimberly Stavrum, M.S.

This presentation will explore how the pre-contemplation stage of change manifests in sex offender treatment and how to effectively work with sex offenders who exhibit significant forms of denial, minimization, resistance and justification over their offense(s) and need for treatment. Aspects of pre-contemplation examined will include reasons for not progressing in the stages of change, ruling out responsivity concerns, minimization and denial of sexual offending behavior, questioning the validity and effectiveness of supervision/treatment, lack of motivation to change and previously failed attempts to change. Furthermore, examples of pre-contemplation statements and attitudes will be reviewed with possible motivational interviewing, cognitive behavioral therapy and trans-theoretical model interventions intended to facilitate change while balancing the challenging of resistance with the need to prevent alienation of the client or providing the client with justification to leave supervision/treatment.

Rape culture: What is it and what can we do about it?

Presenter: Kerry McCarthy, M.A.

Rape culture is defined as a culture that has normalized sexual violence because of its prevailing social attitudes about gender, sexuality and violence. This presentation will provide examples of rape culture and take an in-depth look at how rape culture has been reinforced in our environment. Additionally, it will explore how Washington is addressing this issue and current approaches to reduce sexual violence. This presentation is intended to be interactive and will allow for participants to discuss ways in which these approaches may be adopted.

Working with, instead of against, denial: Part 2

Presenter: Brent Borg, M.S.W.

Approximately one-third of sex offenders categorically deny their offense, with an additional one-third denying some aspect of the crime. As accepting responsibility for an offense is typically an expectation of treatment, many individuals are therefore not treated. This session will look at the complex nature of denial and how it plays out in sex offender treatment. We will also focus on Moving Forward, a treatment program for adjudicated sex offenders who categorically deny their offense.

Tribal nation networking and Q&A

Facilitator: Juli Ana Grant, senior policy advisor

This is an opportunity for tribal attendees to come together and discuss policies and practices, including SORNA compliance. Juli Ana Grant, Washington's Senior Policy Advisor from the SMART Office will be available for questions regarding SORNA implementation.

ALL

All interested

J

Juveniles

LEO

Law enforcement only

T

Tribal members

CC

Community Corrections

LE

Law enforcement

TP

Treatment providers

VS

Victims services

BREAKOUT H

May 9 | 3–3:50 p.m.

- Statutory rape and sex offender registration – Lessons learned
- Treatment 101
- Improving sex offender treatment delivery
- The Indeterminate Sentence Review Board: Part 1
- Juvenile Supervision and Juvenile Rehabilitation's treatment model: Part 1
- Less restrictive alternative panel

LE Statutory rape and sex offender registration: Lessons learned

Presenter: Eric Eisenberg, J.D.

Mr. Bartz's conviction for Statutory Rape (a crime that was repealed in 1988) raised thorny issues regarding his duty to register—which were ultimately resolved by the state supreme court in another case. This session discusses the Bartz case, the decision in In re: Pers. Restraint Petition of Arnold, and lessons learned from both.

LE Treatment 101

Presenters: Cathi Harris, M.A.; Amanda Debleeker, M.S.W.; Jerry Finley, M.A.

This session is designed to educate stakeholders who may be directly involved with sex offenders in their supervision or other aspects of these individuals' lives to better understand what sex offender therapy entails, the logistics and expectations of treatment and the overall efficacy of the treatment DOC provides. This session is designed to be interactive and encourage helpful ways to create supportive communication between treatment providers and others involved in the DOC system.

TP Improving sex offender treatment delivery

Presenter: Alina Shaw, Ph.D. and Henry Abghari, Ph.D.

Three main approaches to sex offender treatment are most commonly used today: The Risk Need Responsivity Model, exemplified by relapse prevention, was borrowed from the chemical dependency treatment literature. The Good Lives Model is a newer, strength-based approach that emphasizes positive, individualized intervention. Last, the Self-Regulation Model, which is garnering a growing level of interest and empirical support, is characterized by the variability of offense-related goals and the different manners in which individuals regulate themselves to achieve their goals. While not ignoring an individual's offense history, the Self-Regulation Model focuses on skill building and developing an individual's internal resources to regulate his sexual behavior by addressing its cognitive, emotional and behavioral components. Therapeutic factors that have been empirically demonstrated to facilitate treatment progress with sex offenders, as well as the treatment medium (individual/group), will be addressed. This presentation is aimed at identifying the most effective strategies employed by these approaches and providing reasonable and feasible ways of incorporating them in a cohesive, unified treatment model.

The Indeterminate Sentence Review Board: Part 1

Presenters: Kecia Rongen; Jeff Patnode; Sheila Lewallen, M.A., LMHC; Kristi Busch

This presentation will provide a brief overview of Washington's ISRB and will be followed by a question-and-answer session. The overview will include the board's structure, populations under the board's jurisdiction, process for decision making, interaction with DOC related to community supervision and the role of victims.

Juvenile Supervision and Juvenile Rehabilitation's treatment model: Part 1

Presenter: Jedd Pelander

This session provides a comprehensive overview of treatment programming for juveniles committed to DSHS' Rehabilitation Administration for sexual behaviors. Topics include assessment, institution programming, reentry and transition, community facility programming and community supervision for youth who have sexually offended.

Less restrictive alternative panel

Panelists: Sonja Hardenbrook, J.D.; Tiffany Pate; Chris Ervin; Jennifer Williams

This is an opportunity for interested attendees to ask questions of several people who work with the LRA process at varying levels.

All interested

Juveniles

Law enforcement only

Tribal members

Community Corrections

Law enforcement

Treatment providers

Victims services

BREAKOUT I

May 9 | 4–4:50 p.m.

- Public records and electronic record keeping
- High-Acuity Milieu development
- Providing expert testimony
- 71.09 Commitment Process and Less Restrictive Alternatives
- Sexual assault prevention: What is being done and how can we contribute?
- Juvenile Supervision and Juvenile Rehabilitation's treatment model: Part 2
- The Indeterminate Sentence Review Board: Part 2

Public records and electronic record keeping

Presenter: Sara Di Vittorio, J.D.

This session provides an overview of the Public Records Act, and additional policies related to electronic record keeping.

High-Acuity Milieu development

Presenters: Brandon Duncan, M.A., LMHC and Catriona Braid, B.A.

The High-Acuity Milieu program was developed to help mitigate acute mental illness, cognitive functioning and other responsivity factors that interfere with residents' ability to attend and maximize from sex offender treatment as well as progress toward conditional release or discharge. The High-Acuity Milieu program required substantial changes to the institutional structure to ensure that the appropriate treatment was being delivered to the population targeted. This presentation will summarize the program and the process that was used to build it.

Providing expert testimony

Presenter: Brad Meryhew, J.D.

This session will focus on the fundamentals of preparing for and delivering testimony as an expert witness in courtroom proceedings. After a review of the fundamentals, we will discuss current issues of interest to the participants and offer feedback and advice for how to handle particular difficult situations. This session is intended for mental health professionals and law enforcement who are called on to testify as experts in court.

71.09 Commitment Process and Less Restrictive Alternatives

Presenters: Fred Wist, J.D. and Tiffany Pate

This session will provide an overview of the legal process for sexually violent predators conditionally released to less restrictive alternative placements under Chapter 71.09 RCW and the significant role of the Department of Corrections in the management of this population.

Sexual assault prevention: What is being done and how can we contribute?

Presenter: Maddie Graves-Wilson

What is being done in communities across Washington to prevent sexual violence? During this session, we will take a look at the effort made by Beyond Survival, a community sexual assault program, to curb the sexual assault rates in Grays Harbor County. We will offer an overview of other efforts across the state and discuss what efforts could look like statewide..

Juvenile Supervision and Juvenile Rehabilitation's treatment model: Part 2

Presenter: Jedd Pelander

This session provides a comprehensive overview of treatment programming for juveniles committed to the DSHS' Juvenile Rehabilitation Administration for sexual behaviors. Topics include assessment, institution programming, reentry and transition, community facility programming and community supervision for youth who have sexually offended.

The Indeterminate Sentence Review Board: Part 2

Presenters: Kecia Rongen; Jeff Patnode; Sheila Lewallen, M.A., LMHC; Kristi Busch

The Q&A section is designed to delve more deeply into individual requests for more information..

All interested

Juveniles

Law enforcement only

Tribal members

Community Corrections

Law enforcement

Treatment providers

Victims services

SESSIONS/ MAY 10

BREAKOUT J

May 10 | 8–8:50 a.m.

- Judgment and sentencing overview
- DOC and its role in community supervision
- Darkness to Light's Stewards of Children®: Part 1
- Special Commitment Center Panel

LE Judgment and sentencing overview

Presenter: Jonathan Meyer, J.D.

This session provides an overview judgement and sentencing requirements.

LE DOC and its role in community supervision

Presenters: Theresa Engdahl, Randy van Zandt, Kristine Skipworth

This session focuses on the department's role in the community supervision of sexual offenders. Topics will include a description of DOC jurisdiction and authority; common types of supervision associated with sex offenders; establishing an appropriate risk classification including use of the Washington ONE risk assessment; developing appropriate risk-related conditions, including prohibitions and affirmative acts; contact standards; two of DOC's Specialty Units, the Spokane and King County Special Assault Units; and some of the challenges of supervising this population.

ALL Darkness to Light's Stewards of Children®: Part 1

Presenter: Lisa Wahl, M.S.N.

One of 10 children will be sexually abused before they turn 18. Research shows that people who are sexually violated as children are far more likely to experience psychological problems often lasting into adulthood, including post-traumatic stress syndrome, depression, suicide, substance abuse, teen pregnancy, dropping out of school and relationship problems.

Darkness to Light understands that learning the facts about childhood sexual abuse helps prevent it, as do talking about it and getting involved. The truth is, if childhood sexual abuse can be prevented, it can be stopped. These survivors lived through child sexual abuse, experienced its immediate and long-term effects and ultimately were able to find healing. They'll meet experts who work with children and families and confront abuse on a daily basis. Many of these survivors and experts are also parents themselves. This program provides opportunity to engage in conversations not only about the video but hear what communities typically ask, are concerned with and respond to the information.

Stewards of Children® is the only nationally distributed program with multiple evaluations demonstrating efficacy classified as an evidence-based program via the federal agency model "Stewards of Children."

ALL Special Commitment Center Panel

Panelists: Elena Lopez, Psy.D.; Tony Bowie; Craig Mingay

This is an opportunity for interested attendees to ask questions of people who work at the Special Commitment Center in different capacities.

BREAKOUT K

May 10 | 9–9:50 a.m.

- Offender Watch Q&A
- Trauma-informed care
- Darkness to Light's Stewards of Children®: Part 2
- Helping offenders make and maintain healthy relationships
- Law enforcement panel

LEO Offender Watch Q&A

PLEASE NOTE: THIS IS A CLOSED SESSION AND IS INTENDED FOR OFFENDER WATCH USERS ONLY

The Offender Watch representative will be available for questions or discussions about Offender Watch and its use.

TP Trauma-informed care

Presenter: Sara Windsheimer, M.A., MFT

Trauma-informed care is important for facilitating change, even for those who have caused trauma to others through their offending. This session will focus on understanding the impacts of adverse childhood experiences and trauma on incarcerated males who have sexually offended. This will include a review of how trauma-informed practices enhance treatment interventions and of current practices of understanding treatment resistance through a trauma-informed lens.

ALL Darkness to Light's Stewards of Children®: Part 2

Presenter: Lisa Wahl, M.S.N.

One of 10 children will be sexually abused before they turn 18. Research shows that people who are sexually violated as children are far more likely to experience psychological problems often lasting into adulthood, including post-traumatic stress syndrome, depression, suicide, substance abuse, teen pregnancy, dropping out of school and relationship problems.

Darkness to Light understands that learning the facts about childhood sexual abuse helps prevent it, as do talking about it and getting involved. The truth is, if childhood sexual abuse can be prevented, it can be stopped. These survivors lived through child sexual abuse, experienced its immediate and long-term effects and ultimately were able to find healing. They'll meet experts who work with children and families and confront abuse on a daily basis. Many of these survivors and experts are also parents themselves. This program provides opportunity to engage in conversations not only about the video but hear what communities typically ask, are concerned with and respond to the information.

Stewards of Children® is the only nationally distributed program with multiple evaluations demonstrating efficacy classified as an evidence-based program via the federal agency model "Stewards of Children."

CC Helping offenders make and maintain healthy relationships

Presenters: Lisa Dandescu, M.S. and Elsbeth Stebbins

In this session, the importance of forming and maintaining healthy relationships, both sexual and nonsexual, among sexual offenders will be reviewed. We will present a variety of approaches and tools to facilitate a reduction in risk/meaningful change with sexual offenders who present with Dynamic Risk Need in domains (as identified by the Stable 2007 Dynamic Risk Assessment) affecting the formation and stability of relationships.

ALL Law enforcement panel

Panelists: Barry Folsom, Clark County Sheriff's Office; Genell Price, Yakima County Sheriff's Office; Jamey McGinty, Lewis County Sheriff's Office

This is an opportunity for interested attendees to ask questions of, and have an open discussion with, law enforcement officers from various jurisdictions.

BREAKOUT L

May 10 | 10–10:50 a.m.

- Sexual abuse – through the medical eye
- SONAR quarterly meeting
- Community Corrections panel
- Making sense of sex offenders and what are we talking about? Risk vs. threat: Part 1
- Mandatory reporting and the Prison Rape Elimination Act
- Early Release Date Housing Voucher Program

J LE VS Sexual abuse – through the medical eye

Presenter: Lisa Wahl, M.S.N.

This session will cover the following topics:

- Discussion of acute versus nonacute medical response to sexual abuse
- Discussion of the differences of a pediatric versus adolescent/adult medical approach
- Review of the Sexual Assault Emergency Medical Evaluation Washington State Recommended Guidelines (with links to access) for all ages
- Staying in your lane: medical versus legal responses and how the two collaborate
- Depictions of a minor engaging in sexually explicit conduct: a brief overview of the clinician's role in a criminal case
- Myth busters: the hymen and the virginity check
- The science behind child disclosures of sexual victimization

LEO SONAR quarterly meeting

PLEASE NOTE: THIS IS A CLOSED SESSION AND IS INTENDED FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT ONLY

Quarterly SONAR and Offender Watch user group meeting for law enforcement tasked with sex offender registration and notification.

ALL Community Corrections panel

Panelists: Theresa Engdahl, Chad Hettinga, Karen Blatman-Byers, Kristine Skipworth, Shantel Ealy

This is an opportunity for interested attendees to ask questions of people who work in Community Corrections at various levels.

TP Making sense of sex offenders and what are we talking about? Risk vs. threat: Part 1

Presenters: Holly Coryell, Ph.D. and Michael O'Connell, Ph.D.

A comprehensive but comprehensible model of sex offending that you can use to guide interventions, explain what you are doing and engage your clients, their support systems and the community. A discussion then follows of the Risk vs. Threat Model and its application to assessing treatment progress and making release recommendations.

LP Mandatory reporting and the Prison Rape Elimination Act

Panelists: Kay Heinrich, Ph.D.; Kathleen James; Eric Crawford

This session features four panelists who work with mandatory reporting and PREA in different ways. Panelists will individually share more about what they do, and their experiences, before opening the floor for audience questions.

CC Early Release Date Housing Voucher Program

Presenter: Teresa Carlson

This program offered by DOC promotes the successful transition from prison to community by assisting in paying rent for up to three months following release from prison. The offender must exhaust other means of housing first; must lack sufficient funds or resources to secure an appropriate address and must be sentenced to community supervision following prison time. Program acceptance and approval for benefits are required to fund a transition plan.

BREAKOUT M

May 10 | 11–11:50 a.m.

- Closing presentation: WordWatch
- SONAR quarterly meeting
- Making sense of sex offenders and what are we talking about? Risk vs. threat: Part 2

ALL Closing presentation: WordWatch

Presenter: Mary Laskowski

The words we use to talk about sexual violence influence the way we all perceive and respond to the issue. Using “unaccountable” language perpetuates a culture where victims are blamed and devalued, sexual violence is tolerated and perpetrators are not held accountable. This is especially critical in the courts, as the language used directly impacts public discourse on sexual violence. This presentation will highlight how language used in report writing can shape the response to sexual assault. The participant will learn how to review categories of language to avoid, analyze language usage in legal documents and offer alternatives to describe sexual assault in a way that more accurately describes the crime.

LEO SONAR quarterly meeting

PLEASE NOTE: THIS IS A CLOSED SESSION AND IS INTENDED FOR LAW ENFORCEMENT ONLY

Quarterly SONAR and Offender Watch user group meeting for law enforcement members tasked with sex offender registration and notification.

TP Making sense of sex offenders and what are we talking about? Risk vs. threat: Part 2

Presenters: Holly Coryell, Ph.D. and Michael O’Connell, Ph.D.

A comprehensive but comprehensible model of sex offending that you can use to guide interventions, explain what you are doing and engage your clients, their support systems and the community. A discussion then follows of the Risk vs. Threat Model and its application to assessing treatment progress and making release recommendations.

ALL All interested

J Juveniles

LEO Law enforcement only

T Tribal members

CC Community Corrections

LE Law enforcement

TP Treatment providers

VS Victims services

54

Downtown YAKIMA

DINING

01. Bob's Burgers & Brew
02. Dairy Queen
03. Olive Garden
04. Second Street Grill
05. Yakima Sports Center
06. Cowiche Canyon Kitchen & Icehouse Bar
07. Golden Wheel Restaurant
08. North Town Coffeehouse
09. Micky's Pub
10. Mel's Diner
11. Gasperetti's Restaurant
12. Red Lobster
13. Carousel Restaurant & Bistro
14. Taco Bell
15. Essencia Artisan Bakery
16. Russillo's
17. Yakima Steak Company
18. Main Stop on the Ave
19. Crafted
20. Norm's of Yakima
21. Provisions Market & Restaurant

CRAFT BEVERAGE

01. Antolin Cellars
02. Gilbert Cellars
03. Kana Winery
04. Tieton Cider Works
05. The Beer Shoppe
06. Hop Nation Brewing Company
07. The Distillarium
08. Berchman's Brewing Company
09. Single Hill Brewing Company
10. Redifier Brewing Company
11. Kamoo Wine Tasting Bar

ATTRACTIONS

01. Yakima Greenway
02. The Seasons Performance Hall
03. 4th Street Theatre
04. The Capitol Theatre
05. Yakima Farmers Market
06. Millennium Plaza
07. Orion Theatre & Micky's Pub
08. Yakima Valley Trolleys

LODGING

01. Fairfield Inn & Suites
02. Ledgestone Hotel
03. Holiday Inn Express
04. Howard Johnson Hotel
05. Holiday Inn Downtown Yakima
06. Red Lion Yakima Center
07. Hilton Garden Inn
08. Oxford Inn
09. Best Western Plus Yakima Hotel
10. Hotel Madison
11. Sun Country Inn

SERVICES

01. New Vision Economic Dev.
02. Chamber of Commerce
03. Yakima Convention Center (Campanile Center)
04. Yakima Valley Tourism
05. Yakima Valley Sports Commission
06. Les Schwab Tire Center
07. Yakima Library
08. City of Yakima

SHOPPING

01. The Little Soapmaker
02. Ummelina Spa Retreat

The businesses featured on this map are members of Yakima Valley Tourism. To become a member contact: Stephanie Ganglo, Office Manager & Membership Services, © 2018 Yakima Valley Tourism, 800.221.1025 / 509.575.3010, yakimavalley.com

WASHINGTON STATE
CORRECTIONAL INDUSTRIES